On the heels of its Leben, Lieben, Sterben 10" release in 2012, Osnabrück, Germany's DUESENJAEGER returns with a split 7" collaboration with Seattle, WA's crust/post-punk trio COUNTDOWN TO ARMAGEDDON. While a seemingly unlikely pairing, both bands similarly skate a thin line between the boundaries of hardcore punk and angular post-punk. The DUESENJAEGER side of this split features a previously unreleased track "Fass Ohne Boden" ("Bottomless Pit" in English), very much along the lines of mid-career WIPERS or EA80 with melancholic vocals sung in German. The COUNTDOWN TO ARMAGEDDON side of the split features the track "State of Lunacy," branching out to more melodic territory than from the band's early predominantly crust-punk sound. The 7" comes beautifully packaged in a photographic outer jacket with a color printed insert. DUESENJAEGER side was self-recorded in their rehearsal space and mastered by Robin Schmidt at 24-96 Studio in Karlsruhe, Germany. COUNTDOWN TO ARMAGEDDON side was recorded at Airport Grocery Studio in Seattle by Brandon Fitzsimons and mastered by Chris Hanzsek at Hanzsek Audio in Snohomish, WA.

MARKETING POINTS:

- COUNTDOWN TO ARMAGEDDON and DUESENJAEGER toured together in Europe in September 2014
- Initial limited pressing of 500, with very few on colored vinyl
- DUESENJAEGER has toured extensively since 2000 & has a very strong following in Germany, Austria, and Switzerland

Artist Hometown: Fullerton, CA

Key Markets: Southern California, any place where punk rock is king!

For Fans of: CIRCLE JERKS, TSOL, BLACK FLAG, SOCIAL DISTORTION, RIKK AGNEW, GERMS, MIDDLE CLASS, AGENT ORANGE, D.I.

ADOLESCENTS are one of the most popular punk bands ever. It was formed by original AGENT ORANGE bassist Steve Soto and singer Tony Reflex in 1979 in Fullerton, California. Along the way they recruited Frank and Rikk Agnew from SOCIAL DISTORTION and in 1981 released their self-titled debut album (a/k/a The Blue Album) that would become one of the most beloved and influential Southern California punk albums of all time. Along with BAD BRAINS, BLACK FLAG, and MINOR THREAT, the ADOLESCENTS remain one of the most respected bands of the 1980s hardcore/skate punk scene (voted the N° 1 best Orange County band of all time by OCWeekly).

The latest album, La Vendetta... è un piatto che va servito freddo, proves that ADOLESCENTS have not mellowed one snarling, snotty bit with tracks like "A Dish Best Served Cold," "Nothing Left to Say" and "Let It Go." This is the first LP of NEW material that Frontier has released since the blue LP, so you know this record is phenomenal!

MARKETING POINTS:

- First pressing on sea-foam green wax
- Vinyl comes with download card
- Controversial cover art by famed Spanish illustrator Mario Rivière

4. Bleak
5. Eyelids

7. All Ears

INFORMATION:

Artist Hometown: Exeter, UK

Key Markets: New York, NY; Chicago, IL; Philadelphia, PA

For Fans of: BILLY BRAGG, THE WEAKERTHANS, AGAINST ME!

THE FAIRWEATHER BAND's frontman, Rory Matthews, has been playing solo for a number of years under the moniker Some Sort of Threat and earlier this year formed this new group as a more rocking way to present his concise and intricate songwriting. Taking influence from the likes of AGAINST ME!, BILLY BRAGG and THE WEAKERTHANS this is great, intelligent, lyrically driven rock. It's still early days for the band but if the quality of this EP and recent performances supporting RVIVR, MIKE WATT (THE MINUTEMEN) and TIM KASHER (CURSIVE) mean anything then it's a very promising start.

"Sounding like a cross between Billy Bragg and Vampire Weekend, this track off the Exeter band's future debut release is clever and it boasts a memorable hook." (Review of the track "Bleak") - The Independent (UK)

MARKETING POINTS:

- First press limited to 300 copies
- Already attracting attention from mainstream UK press
- UK/EU touring planned for late 2014 & early 2015
