FOR FANS OF: DIMMU BORGIR, ENFOLD DARKNESS, KEEP OF KALESSIN, THY DARKENED SHADE

From its scorching climate to its bizarre news headlines, it would be no understatement to describe Florida as an extreme State. Once even known as the death metal capital of the world, Tampa Florida would eventually give birth to the extreme metallers IMMANIFEST in 2008. Invoking and combining their Floridian death metal roots with Nordic spirit, the band would go on to share the stage with International acts such as DEICIDE, KAMELOT, TYR, KORPIKLAANI and KULT OV AZAZEL. Their QLIPHOTIC EP, officially released in the summer of 2010 would also go on to win praise from members of OLD MAN'S CHILD, BORKNAGAR, DEICIDE, KAMELOT and MALEVOLENT CREATION. While taking influence from many extreme metal subgenres, the band's sound could perhaps best be described as symphonic black / death metal. Now, after finally awakening from hypersleep, the sextet have joined forces with THE ARTISAN ERA for the next chapter...

MARKETING POINTS:

- 45 minutes of epic symphonic storm of a mixture of heavy genres
- Masterfully crafted soundscapes

FOR FANS OF: REVEREND, METAL CHURCH, WARGASM, WRATHCHILD AMERICA and ONSLAUGHT

Unceremoniously dropped by Epic Records following the release of 1990's Solitary Solitude, the core MELIAH RAGE lineup of Anthony Nichols, Jim Koury, and Mike Munro soldiered on with a new rhythm section that included future GODSMACK frontman Sully Erna on drums. The group gradually laid down an album's worth of uncirculated demos (posthumously released as Unfinished Business in 1999) for the purposes of shopping directly to record labels, but—unable to secure a proper deal—would call it quits by 1994.

A year or so later, Backstreet Records reached out to the band regarding the prospect of putting together a new MELIAH RAGE album. Nichols, Koury, and Munro called in their old friend Bob Mayo (WARGASM) on bass, and rounded out the lineup with Dave Barcos behind the kit. The result was 11-song full-length Death Valley Dream: a no-B.S. thrash record that retains a rhythmic midpaced crunch while introducing more speed and energy than what the band had been demoing prior. Unfortunately, with supporting live opportunities drying up in the mid-'90s, the members would ultimately go their separate ways for nearly a decade.

Now, more than 20 years later, Divebomb Records is thrilled to once more join forces with MELIAH RAGE for this definitive edition of Death Valley Dream – complete with meticulously polished retouches of the Unfinished Business recordings as a bonus. Fully remastered by Jamie King Audio, this reissue also features a retrospective interview with guitarist Anthony Nichols. For the fans, by the fans!

MARKETING POINTS:

- Newly remastered in 2019
- New cover art
- Features new interview with guitarist, Anthony Nichols
- 9 bonus tracks, featuring GODSMACK frontman Sully Erna on drums
- Former Sony Records recording artist
- Features Bob Mayo of WARGASM on bass

FOR FANS OF: REVEREND, METAL CHURCH, WARGASM, WRATHCHILD AMERICA and ONSLAUGHT

Having eventually gone their separate ways after the release of Death Valley Dream in 1996, legendary Boston power thrashers MELIAH RAGE opened the door on reunion talks around 2002. Founding guitarist Anthony Nichols quickly roped in fellow axeman Jim Koury, and with original frontman Mike Munro opting out, the two recruited their former CACTUS LAND bandmate Paul Souza on vocals. Original bassist Jesse Johnson was also a go, and friend and former WARGASM drummer Barry Spillberg rounded out the lineup for 2004's Barely Human, prior to the return of original drummer Stuart Dowie.

With 4/5 of the classic MELIAH RAGE lineup in tow, the group set out to release The Deep and Dreamless Sleep through Screaming Ferret Wreckords in 2006. This darker set of eight tracks offered more tempo variation and textural experimentation than much of the band's prior work, allowing the disc to remain a unique standout amidst their continually-expanding discography. The outfit's second U.S. tour with METAL CHURCH would follow in support of the album, and MELIAH RAGE has been going strong ever since.

Over a decade later, Divebomb Records is excited to once more join forces with MELIAH RAGE for this revamped reissue of The Deep and Dreamless Sleep. Completely remixed and remastered by Peter Rutcho for vastly improved sound quality, this edition breathes new life into one of the band's most underrated albums. The packaging will also include full lyrics—transcribed for the first time ever, with oversight and approval from Paul Souza himself—a retrospective interview with Nichols and Souza, as well as added commentary from Rutcho. For the fans, by the fans!

MARKETING POINTS:

ARTIST HOMETOWN: Minneapolis, MN

KEY MARKETS: Worldwide Metal Community

FOR FANS OF: VIO-LENCE, FAITH OR FEAR, ATROPHY & FORCED ENTRY

Mike Valle (guitar, vocals) and Matt Valle (drums) formed their first band around 1986 in Maplewood, MN—a three-piece called Dark Realm. Performing mostly covers (SLAYER, METALLICA, CELTIC FROST, etc.) at backyard and basement parties, they eventually headed in a more serious direction—replacing their bassist with Sloan Helepololei and renaming the trio STATE OF MIND.

Recorded in a local basement studio, a self-titled six-song demo had been issued by 1989, and the group promptly began playing shows. This outing was quickly followed by STATE OF MIND's lone 10-song full-length, Mass Persecution, released—on cassette only—by diverse Minneapolis label Channel 83 Records in 1990. The album's 36 minutes of rugged, socio-political thrash even garnered the respect of certain factions of the area's legendary punk scene—notably from the now-renown Profane Existence label/zine.

Having racked up shows alongside ANACRUSIS, LÄÄZ ROCKIT, GOTHIC SLAM, D.R.I., AFTERMATH, and many others, STATE OF MIND continued to write and perform live while all three members attended college, but—understandably—the band's once-rapid progress slowed. It would be 1993 before the trio would unleash its final four-song demo, Mainroom Wanna-be's—introducing a darker and more technical approach that explored a far wider range of influences. With opportunities dwindling, however, STATE OF MIND would call it quits the following year.

Now, nearly three decades later, Divebomb Records is thrilled to finally present Mass Persecution for the first time ever on CD, with Mainroom Wanna-be's as an added bonus! Fully remastered by Jamie King Audio, the disc includes a 20-page booklet with lyrics, vintage photos and a retrospective interview with STATE OF MIND. For the fans, by the fans!

These are cult bands for cult fans. Are you ready to join the army?

INFORMATION:

ARTIST HOMETOWN: Sacramento, CA

KEY MARKETS: Worldwide Metal Community

FOR FANS OF: OPETH, AYREON, DEVIN TOWNSEND & HAKEN

Based out of Sacramento, CA, LUNAR is a progressive metal band formed in 2013 when longtime friends Alex Bosson (drums/percussion) and Ryan Erwin (guitar/vocals) decided to get together and write the style of music that was always in their hearts: genre-defiant and free of restrictive influence. After securing Danny Stevenson on keyboards, the search continued for a full lineup... but to no avail. Rather than delay their progress, the trio decided to record and self-release their debut EP, Provenance, in the Winter of 2014.

Shortly after the release of Provenance, Danny parted ways with the group, while Bosson and Erwin began work on LUNAR'S debut full-length, Theogony—a concept album based on The Nine Muses of Greek mythology. Once more unable to flesh out a suitably complete lineup as writing progressed, Alex and Ryan decided to enlist contributions from other professional musicians around the world. With the eventual additions of Ryan Price on bass and Chandler Mogel on vocals, a proper lineup for Theogony was set; and by the end of the recording process 17 different musicians had participated.

Sadly, in the spring of 2018, Erwin unexpectedly passed away, leaving Bosson unsure of how to proceed. Ultimately, he decided to persevere and continue on with LUNAR. Using the tragedy as inspiration, he began writing the next full-length, Eidolon: another concept album based around the cycle of life and death, and the stages of grief endured by those left behind. After composing the music, Alex enlisted friend Balmore Lemus (NOVAREIGN) to handle tracking guitars for the project. With Price and Mogel both returning, the lineup for Eidolon was set.

Scheduled for release in November of 2019, Eidolon provides another emotional journey of progressive metal at its finest, spanning seven tracks in nearly an hour. In keeping with the diversity that guest musicians brought to Theogony, Alex decided to continue down that path. By the end of recording, a total of 18 musicians had contributed to Eidolon—including members of HAKEN, THANK YOU SCIENTIST, FALLUJAH, LEPROUS, and CALIGULA'S HORSE, among others.

MARKETING POINTS:

- Features guest appearances by members of HAKEN, THANK YOU SCIENTIST, FALLUJAH, LEPROUS, and CALIGULA'S HORSE

FOR FANS OF: DYSTOPIA, EYEHATEGOD, -16-, FISTULA, BUZZOV*EN

Generally, people are attracted to very specific things, shiny things, objects of a familiar shape, items that generally give you the comfort that the world is a neat and proper place. Items that fit perfectly in places they weren't designed for are super satisfying. Other people find themselves attracted to the odd and mundane, they find odd shapes to match the chaos of the world. Arizona's UGLY isn't a block that doesn't fit in the peg hole, they could be more like the object that lies in many places, or a vector, or a four-dimensional image.

The band plays a heavy detuned sludge metal sticky with riffs and seething with angry noise slithering in the undertone. Think of the first time you heard SKINNY PUPPY and how hard it was to break apart the elements that were stitched together. The band breaks for periods to give a good repetitive riff only to break back into noisy uproar again.

The band summons my favorite elements of BASTARD NOISE, CATTLEPRESS, and SISSY SPACEK and weaves them into a death cloak of pandemonium.

MARKETING POINTS:

- Members from TRANSIENT and LANDMIND MARATHON
- Heavy sludge metal sound
- Well recorded, very interesting record worth relistening.
- Features the vocalist from LANDMINE MARATHON and TRANSIENT.

WITCHHUNT

The desert is an unforgiving land, definitely a hard place for people to live. The ones who do survive the temperatures that can hit 120, and scorpions that lurk in ever crack and crevice and can birth thirty more evil pinching stinging machines at a time, they turn out different. Mad Max isn't known for his witty banter or snappy comebacks but has a thousand-yard stare of someone who had his partner killed and has to live on the road for fuel and sustenance. Phoenix's PIG CITY embodies that stare - they produce Misanthropic dirges that would make a normal person question their sanity. They dig in deep and produce a sound that that reminds me if HIS HERO IS GONE or ARTIMUS PYLE played more blastbeats. I wouldn't cross the way this band sounds on a brightly lit street at night, just hearing them makes me anxious and want to find somewhere safer to be.

FOR FANS OF: INTEGRITY, FUNERAL CHIC, GEHENNA, NAILS

Occasionally in life you run across something that tugs on your heart strings. You feel smitten and smile all the time and feel lifted from this awful world. I hate to break it to you but No Light Below pulls on your heart, it firmly grasps and rips each ventricle one by one popping and sputtering until your blackened hard is encased in the mire which is this world. Vindictive, nihilistic, spiteful, and completely vitriolic is how you'd best explain JOY. The band has risen from their crushing first EP and produced a masterful freshman full length that oozes hatred. Those unfamiliar with the band will be greeted with bile and blackened hardcore that can only be broiled out of the oppressive North Carolina sunshine. Breakdowns, blastbeats, BOTCH-esque brutality. In this modern day where nothing makes sense, JOY bash and beat you back to reality.
