The Explosion were a band from 1998-2007. They recorded several eps and lps for several labels including Jade Tree and their own Tarantulas, and they toured the world with the likes of AFI, SOIA, Avail, Social Distortion, and Alkaline Trio. "Bury Me Standing" was recorded in 2006. This 3rd full-length album was intended for release on Virgin Records. After many trials, The Explosion announced on Feb 13, 2007 that they were leaving the label. 5 years and one day later, this gem will have it's due.

Marketing Points:

- the final record from this amazing band
- new cover artwork
- limited edition colored vinyl

INFORMATION:

Artist Hometown: Cleveland

Key Markets: Cleveland, Chicago, Columbus, NYC, Boston, Midwest

In 2009, Punknews.org (the genre's biggest webzine) awarded "Album of the Year" to The Sidekicks. The band has since migrated from Cleveland to Columbus and made an even bigger migration with their ever-maturing sound on "Awkward Breeds". Some will hear influences like Superchunk, Rilo Kiley, and Weezer on this latest album, but The Sidekicks have managed to retain and further develop a signature sound that is all their own.

Marketing Points:

- Tours booked with Bayside, Cheap Girls, The Menzingers, and a SXSW appearance
- Solid PR hired on for publicity campaign
- Already getting great reviews, Alt Press gave it 9/10
- Ads booked in AMP, Razorcake, MRR, etc
