ELWAY released their debut full length, Delusions, in 2011 and went on to make quite a dent in the DIY punk scene. Armed with that breakout album, ELWAY toured their asses off, made lotsa friends, and won over loads of new fans. Something else must've happened in that time, because ELWAY's songwriting has further improved, and that's clearly evident on these four new tunes that make up Hence My Optimism. These are gutsy and efficient punk songs, sure to please the ELWAY faithful, but even more certain to garner them more new fans. Think THE LAWRENCE ARMS meets PROPAGANDHI; it really is a promising step up for the band and a big favorite here at the Red Scare HQ.

Marketing Points:

- ELWAY's 2011 Full Length, Delusions, Got Lotsa Love & Made Many "Best Of" Lists.
- This Hard-Touring Band Already Has A 2012 Tour Booked In Support Of TEENAGE BOTTLEROCKET

With over eight self-released CDs and gigs-a-plenty, it's about time that Los Angeles based jazzy-retro-exotica-bossa-nova-cocktail-lounge combo THE MARTINI KINGS make an appearance on the beloved vinyl format. In their professional existence, THE MARTINI KINGS have performed events for the likes of Clint Eastwood, Stephen King, The Getty Center, Mattel and Universal Studios, had their music in HBO's "Entourage" and made an appearance during the Malibu cliff-top wedding scene in the "Six Feet Under" season curtain-raiser. THE MARTINI KINGS' Marsico brothers have performed in backing groups with BOB DYLAN, NEIL YOUNG AND MARIANNE FAITHFUL. THE MARTINI KINGS' bassist Tony Marsico was in East LA punk legends THE PLUGZ, THE CRUZADOS, and played bass behind Bob Dylan on David Letterman's show.

Their pro-resume aside, THE MARTINI KINGS are also loved among tiki and retro aficionados and are a staple at the yearly Tiki Oasis weekender, numerous burlesque, lounge events and backyard tiki parties. They have the technique and sound down to a fine art and in the process inject equal amounts of heart and soul into their craft. The instrumentation is centered around vibes, stand-up bass and percussion with tasty arrangements including piano, guitar, wind and stringed instruments.

Palm Springs Serenade is a collection of the group's favorite tracks from their CD releases and features a track recorded with lounge legend and former Rat Pack member BUDDY GRECO. The art of their pal SHAG adorns the album cover and visually fits the combo's sound from top to bottom. And, the sound on this album which was cut on a vintage Scully lathe with the legendary Westrex B3 stereo cutting head is huge and open with lots of warm low-end. The album jacket is printed vintage style; front cover slick on thick board... this is not your ordinary one piece fabricated album jacket but the Martini Kings / SHAG combination deserves no less. A coupon for a digital download is included in this package.

Marketing Points:

- Limited Edition 180 Gram Vinyl
- '60's Style Slick on Board Album Cover

Key Markets: AZ, NM, CA, TX, CO

For Fans of: ROSETTA, MOUTH OF THE ARCHITECT, THE OCEAN, ISIS

After a lengthy time in musical purgatory, NORTH is back four years later with the epic The Great Silence. A twisting, heavy, gloom filled album of cosmological proportions, with howling vocals going back and forth between pure agony and harsh terror, guitar riffs tearing at the fabric of time, and drums and bass booming and blasting off into the atmosphere. After dealing with several on-again/off-again member changes, an extended writing process has resulted in a diverse, almost mentally exhausting musical venture into the great unknown of space. The record is even darker and heavier than NORTH's previous records, the critically acclaimed Decibel top 40 album of 2008, What You Were, the post-apocalyptic instrumental world of 2007's Ruins, and the cold ambient landscapes of their first EP Siberia. Recorded at Loveland Studios in Tucson, AZ with Dana Fehr in January 2012.

Marketing Points:

- The last full-length album from NORTH— What You Were— was listed on Decibel Magazine's "Top 40 albums of 2009"
- Band going on full US tour in June and also in August
- 2xLP will be available on limited edition colored vinyl
- Album mastered by Matt Weed (Guitar Player for Rosetta)

INFORMATION:

Artist Hometown: Austin, TX

Key Markets: Earth

For Fans of: DREAM THEATER, CONFESSOR, HADES, ATHEIST & RUSH

WATCHTOWER's Control And Resistance, is a work for the ages, a tech-metal cornerstone, an album that didn't fit in back in 1989, and certainly has nothing to do with where metal would branch off to when WATCHTOWER themselves laid dormant throughout the 1990s. And that's the real beauty of Control And Resistance. The rebel spirit of heavy metal isn't really found in the hordes of spikes-and-leather clone bands and similar fourth-raters that continue to litter metalworld. The true rebel spirit of heavy metal is right here, in the eight sophisticated songs of Control And Resistance that exist only because the creators wanted to bring something truly original into the world. Odd, maybe, that true metal spirit would burn brightest on an album of sublime, progressive tech-metal, but there you have it. For the fans, by the fans...
