Considered to be one of America's premier noise bands; BOY DIRT CAR returns with the classic line up: Darren Brown, Dave Szolwinski, Dan Kubinski, Keith Brammer, Steve Whalen & Jeff Hamilton. Joined by guests: Rico McCollum, Mike Sawyer, Josh Mead and Jarrold Olman Familia is a sermon or call it soundtrack to a beautiful yet disturbed mantra with possible insight to breakdown. Enter found sounds combined with interludes of thrashed out bass, distorted guitars, and manipulations alongside vocal interludes and or tantrums. The almost choral-like vocals musings inserted within and around readings toward enlightenment or demented pictorials, led you to make it what you will. So advisedly take in this noise recording ...

For Fans of: SPK, DINOSAUR JR., SEBADOH, NEIL YOUNG, MINUTEMEN, SWANS, TEST DEPT

Split LP featuring the first international rock artist joining the After Music Recordings, Scotsman ANDY GALLAGHER. Original artwork from Josh Mead and Astrid Young (Neil Young's sister) BOY DIRT CAR has gotten the drift again, BOY DIRT CAR revived... with "Treacherous Young Witches": a textural affair of layers with echoing & twisting noises, guitar undercurrents and the like, interrupted by razor'd-electro-noise eroding the music away. Enter "Louis's Bounce" a bounce-heavy, clanking rhythm-bed, with touches of marimba, fused with found sounds and spoken tantrums. 20 minutes... organic as a kitten and as possessed as the Oracle's mono-toned pronouncements. The flip features ANDY GALLAGHER enlisting the help of MIKE WATT (MINUTEMEN), Mike Hoffman, Steve Summers and Graham Brown. The instantly memorable opener "Should've stayed in bed" is reminiscent of a melancholy Grant Hart that won't leave your memory anytime soon. This 4-song effort then merges into tracks touching ANDY GALLAGHER'S influences DINOSAUR JR., SEBADOH, NEIL YOUNG and Sailor Jerry.

Marketing Points:

- Mike Watt on bass on Andy Gallagher's "Achukma"
- BOY DIRT CAR features members of DIE KREUZEN, FUCK FACE, AFGHAN WHIGS

Listening to the BDC & F/I split, I was really thrown at the songs F/I chose. So now you have the tilt-a-whirl on side F/I and the shitsville on side BDC. The whole record is of this time and reflects that past time. Balance is important. You get it here. For the deranged. F/I veteran Milwaukee space rockers doing the Kosmische Muzik thing up proud! F/I is not a pop or rock band but a continually evolving musical macro- organism. Around since 1981 and releasing at least a dozen LPs F/I started out as a unit elaborating on noise structures and sonic landscaping.

For Fans of: WHITEHOUSE, BURIAL HEX, ERIC LUNDE, MERZBOW

Milwaukee based-conceptual artist and educator PETER J. WOODS believes: "Music has the wonderful ability to speak to both intellect & instinct." In respect for the vinyl medium, I think it's great that artists have the ability to force people into specific listening environments. Songs for Nothing develops a central sound as in guitar drone, a feedback device, starting with an image/concept to develop the piece around. Scathing, abruptly unapologetic harsh noise.

The mere mention of jazz greats from COLTRANE to STAN GETZ, brings STEVE MACKAY to memories of his mother's 10" record collection then add some Jr. Walker and one might scratch the surface of influence delivered on "North Beach Jazz" Steve Mackay, legendary saxophonist of the STOOGES, COMMANDER CODY, VIOLENT FEMMES, SNAKEFINGER, utilized one Mike Watt of MINUTEMEN/FIREHOSE fame with whom he collaborated, playing the mighty "Watt machine" the bass, rounding out the combo with Marc Lampert, Dick Deluxe, Jeremy Long all CARNAL KITCHEN partners in crime. North Beach Jazz reflects a young STEVE MACKAY'S jazz influences along with the golden era of San Francisco's North Beach.
