Imagine if SSD were highly influenced by INFEST. This is their freshman EP and after four pummeling songs, the record ends with a slowly building song that ends in a crushing white noise of feedback and chaos. KRANG clawed their way out of the sewers of Chicago formed a band, started touring and they haven't looked back since. Musically they combine politically minded, d-beat crust punk with the high-energy riffage of thrash metal. Have they stumbled on new genera... "crustover"? Only time will tell. What we know for sure is that KRANG brings it! The songs from this 7" are soon to be classic and their extremely chaotic live shows are the things legends are made of. Once they pulled a GWAR and sprayed the audience in ketchup and mustard (aka "crustard"). It was a truly awesome sight, for those who managed to escape being covered in condiments. This is the sixth release in the Profane Existence Limited Edition Singles Series of 2013. This is a short run pressing that is available on four different colors. As the title suggests supplies are limited. Once they are gone, they are gone.

Marketing Points:

- Limited Edition Color Vinyl

- Political d-beat crust meets raging thrash metal
