For Fans of: LESS THAN JAKE, CANDY HEARTS, NO MORE, MIXTAPES, AWESOMENESS, CHUMPED

Is GREENHORN a Gainesville super group? It might as well be! Jen Vito has fronted the band NOMORE for over 20 years, and Roger Lima has been playing in LESS THAN JAKE for just as long. The two long time friends bashed out some ideas in a basement along with local riff master, Sterlo. The recording process started strong, but took a back seat to "day jobs". Finally, the lyrics were completed and the project hit full stride. The result is the I WANT MORE EP – six catchy pop punk gems with strong guy/girl vocals and enough groove to get even the laziest of bodies moving. Jen and Roger literally "want more" and lyrically demand a better experience than the mundane and recycled. These are fresh tunes with a new outlook from familiar songwriters, collaborating in perfect balance. GREENHORN may not be performing in a town near you, but after a few spins of this platter, you'll be wishing they were.

MARKETING POINTS:

While the three-piece group is his main project, there's always room for another musical outlet, especially when the songs' subject matter doesn't lend themselves well to screaming and vitriol. The songs on this debut solo EP range from five years to just a couple of months old at the time of release, and range from straightforward singer/songwriter material, protest themes, and Irish-traditional influenced ballads.

Artist Hometown: San Jose, CA

For Fans of: NOFX, LESS THAN JAKE, ALKALINE TRIO, GREEN DAY, SWINGIN' UTTERS, COBRA SKULLS

Taking after the sounds of classic punk power trios, POINT OF VIEW is an up-and-coming punk rock band out of San Jose, CA. With a punk base similar to old GREEN DAY and NOFX, the group leans toward the Bay Area pop-punk sound and brings a hook-laden attitude to the genre. The group independently released a full-length titled Sideshow Years in September 2011 that was later re-released by the band's current label, Hella Mad Records. While the rugged nature of the band's sound is prevalent, opener "The On-Going Two Faced Dilemma" provides a crystal-clear bass line to carry the track, bringing back memories of RISE AGAINST and GREEN DAY's early releases before POINT OF VIEW kicks in some ska/reggae portions. Meanwhile, tracks like "The F.D.A. Steals Your Personality" show the band's earnest youth, bringing comparisons of peers EMILY'S ARMY. While horns and reggae influences are present throughout the whole album, the focus is certainly on the punk rock here, with those influences brought in only at times.

In 2013 POINT OF VIEW got together to write its newest EP titled Burner. This album shows the maturity of the band but still has that same feel that they had in its previous releases. Be sure to check POV out on tour with THE VIBRATORS, as well as playing some shows with UK SUBS, BRYAN MCPHERSON, COBRA SKULLS, and UNION 13.

MARKETING POINTS:

- Limited pressing of 300
- 33 1/3 RPM

INFORMATION:

Artist Hometown: Chula Vista, CA

Key Markets: California, Boston

For Fans of: INFEST, YOUTH OF TODAY, BOLD, DESPISE YOU, WEEKEND NACHOS

Originally released as a super limited run of records last year, I nabbed a copy Chula Violence before it sold out and it quickly rose to my top release of 2013. To make sure this beast did not go extinct I approached the band and they agreed to a pressing on TLAL. IMPULSE is super young in age but it takes the old sound of 80's hardcore and infuses it with new life and increased RPM. Imagine YOUTH OF TODAY fused with the speed of NEOS. There isn't enough I can say about this band! I feel like they are a gem waiting to be unveiled to the world just like the CAVE STATE EP. Get plugged into West Coast's newest youth crew... crew.

MARKETING POINTS:

- All copies on white vinyl
- Technically a repressing, original pressing of 150 sold out
- Up-and-coming young band, I'm spreading the word on them
- Had a track on the TLAL Vol II comp
