INFORMATION:

Artist Hometown: Los Angeles, CA

Key Markets: The Metal World

For Fans of: Metal Church, Heretic, Overkill, Anthrax and Meliah Rage

Despite traditional heavy metal falling out of favor in their hometown of Los Angeles, REVEREND never compromised their musical vision to try and fit in like many of their counterparts awkwardly did. Album tracks like "Another Form of Greed" and "Butcher of Baghdad" found REVEREND mining from their classic metal roots and infusing the material with a modern thrash bite. It was a perfect marriage of both the song craft of early '80s metal with the muscular guitar tones of the day.

Their debut EP surfaced in 1989, but it wasn't until REVEREND delivered two classic thrash tinged heavy metal albums that people took serious notice. 1990's World Won't Miss You and 1991's Play God brought the group critical acclaim, and helped grow their fan base throughout the globe.

World Won't Miss You and Play God, both long out of print, are now getting the Deluxe Edition treatment from Divebomb Records. The new discs both include brand new mastering, bonus tracks and new essays culled from a conversation between former REVEREND guitarist Brian Korban and music journalist Carlos Ramirez of noecho.net.

MARKETING POINTS:

- Limited Edition
- Back on CD after 20 years
- Members of legendary metal acts METAL CHURCH and HERETIC

For Fans of: THE CASUALTIES, KRUM BUMS, THE EXPLOITED, SUBHUMANS, THE UNSEEN, FU's, VIOLENT SOCIETY

SPECIAL DUTIES have been one of (if not the) most influential bands in street punk history. The band came into prominence with their 1982 album 77 in 82 (which spent over two months in the independent charts) and, as silly as it sounds, its chart topping (Top 20) U.K hits "Police State", "Too Much Talking" "Bullshit Crass" and "Punk Rocker". Not too much more can be said about the band that hasn't been said a million times. Cited by bands from THE UNSEEN DEFIANCE, THE CASUALTIES, and more as being the sole reason for their existence. 77 One More Time has been in the making since last summer, and the response has been rabid! Fans from around the world are already lining up, and word of mouth has been nothing short of insane.

This album marks the first material in print since 1999's long out of print Singles Collection released on cd format only. This is the band's first official full length vinyl release since 1997. We've gone over and beyond on this record with several limited colors, full color poster inserts, superb re-mastering from original sources to bring these 30+year old recordings to new life while retaining their classic sound, and solid packaging. This is Vol. 1 of a two volume series (with Vol. 2 scheduled for late this year) and finally a brand new record of all new material in late 2014/early 2015, as well as worldwide touring planned for much of 2015 and regional touring this year in support of the record. Jailhouse is also pulling out all the stops on this record, with ads in every relevant 'zine and website, posters and promotional materials sent to stores worldwide, a CD release of the record scheduled for August, and teaser promo CDs. Rarely have we been this proud of an album, and are humbled to release material from such a legendary band!

MARKETING POINTS:

- Several limited color variants along with 180 gram black vinyl
- LP is stuffed with all kinds of goodies, poster foldout, old photos, flyers and more
- This first pressing will be gone within a few weeks (only 500 of this pressing)!
