Surf Mania, LP

STREET DATE: BACK IN PRINT!

INFORMATION:

Artist Hometown: Atascadero, California

Key Markets: Los Angeles, San Diego, San Francisco, Portland, Seattle, Las Vegas

For Fans of: DICK DALE, THE SURFARIS, THE BOMBORAS, THE BOSS MARTIANS, THE REVELS

In the late 90s, Bacchus Archives was put in touch with surf legend Norman Knowles, member of THE REVELS and writer of the surf classic "Church Key" as Norman produced the classic but totally obscure LP that was originally released on the budget Sutton label in 1963, with no liner notes, no inner sleeve, and no distribution beyond the dollar rack at local grocery stores! It was rumored that there were some unreleased tracks and as it turned out, Norman had them! The tracks were taken from the best sources possible with many in stereo. THE SURF TEENS were from the central coast town of Atascadero, California and at the time consisted of Jeff Hammond, 16 years old, lead guitar, John Hammon, 13 years old, drums, Greg Smith, 16, rhythm guitar, Tony Johnson, 20, bass - their ages at the time of recording Surf Mania prove indeed that they were SURF TEENS!

MARKETING POINTS:

- This album is presented in all analog - cut in analog using a Scully Lathe with Westrex 2B Cutting Head by Len Horowitz at HRS
- Produced by surf legend Norman Knowles
- Fabulous liner notes
- Includes free digital download
- Out of print on LP for years, this is a repressing of only 500 on clear vinyl

Experience an exotic evening at the famous Kahiki Supper Club, a legendary and now defunct "Tiki Temple" in Columbus Ohio with THE BEACHCOMBER TRIO, the house band who filled the restaurant's Music Bar with a unique Latin Jazz/Hawaiian/Lounge hybrid. Like many restaurant albums released in the '60s, this recording brings back the excitement of a small live audience with cocktails in hand and even includes the sound of the bar's waterfall adding to the unique environmental experience. Listen now to the sound of a night out inside of the greatest Polynesian restaurants in the world. This previously unreleased tape was for years in the possession of trio leader Marsh Padilla and recently presented to exotica musicologist Jeff Chenault who put the release together for Bacchus Archives. Due to demand for this album we decided to do another run of 500, this time, un-numbered and on transparent blue vinyl to differentiate it from the original numbered edition.

Key Markets: Los Angeles, San Diego, San Francisco, Portland, Seattle, Las Vegas

For Fans of: DICK DALE, MAN OR ASTRO MAN?, THE CREEPY CREEPS, THE FINKS, LOS STRAITJACKETS

THE BOMBORAS were an all-instrumental surf band from Los Angeles formed in the summer of 1994, sharing a love of '60's Surf/Garage such as THE VENTURES, BOOKER T, and THE SONICS. Donning Halloween masks, Tiki Heads, and Day of the Dead regalia onstage, the fivesome tempered their retro-stylings with an update by way of THE RAMONES, THE PANDORAS, and NUGGETS. Accompanied by frenzied Go Go girls, spitting flames, stage-diving, and destroying their own equipment, the Bomboras' livid funhouse take on surf rock became an object of fan adoration, albeit a worry to the local fire department.

Recorded live on analog four-track and mixed on vintage analog gear by Lee Joseph, with cover art and humorous song to song liner note by artist SHAG, THE BOMBORAS Savage Island is acknowledged as a classic surf album and an influential early contender in the surf revival of the 90s.

MARKETING POINTS:

- Recorded and mixed in analog - cut in analog using a Scully Lathe with Westrex 2B Cutting Head by Len Horowitz at HRS
- Art and liner notes by SHAG
- One of the earliest and best intro surf albums of the '90s surf revival

UNION 13 is a hardcore punk band from Boyle Heights, CA that began playing backyard parties in the early 1990s. The intense energy of Union's live show was so fierce that it attracted the attention of Brett Gurewitz, owner of the Epitaph Records, who turned up at one of their performances and persuaded the band to record a demo at his studio, Westbeach Recorders. Gurewitz later played the demo for Tim Armstrong and Lars Frederiksen of RANCID who liked it so much that they jumped on board to help produce the band's Epitaph debut East Los Presents (1997).

To date UNION 13 has released four full-length albums - three on Epitaph and one on Disaster. Determined to keeping UNION 13 moving forward, long standing band members Edward Escoto and Baltazar Rodriguez are joined by guitarist Eddie Carrasco and an exciting new drummer, Cassie Jalilie. Moving forward UNION 13 continues to tour as well as release its fifth album, Ten Years Of Silence!

MARKETING POINTS:

- First release since 2003!

For Fans of: MOTORHEAD, GBH, ACDC, TURBONEGRO, BACKYARD BABIES, SOCIAL DISTORTION, THE WEIRDOS, ILL REPUTE, and Former members of LA GUNS, Early GUNS N ROSES, ACES AND EIGHTS, FASTER PUSSYCAT

SYMBOL SIX began on Posh Boy Records with their debut album, Symbol Six, with label mates SOCIAL DISTORTION, TSOL and AGENT ORANGE during the early Los Angeles punk rock explosion. A hard to match resume includes a Billboard Magazine top album of the year; a 1988 split release with AGENT ORANGE's Living in Darkness; managed, recorded and produced by the infamous Kim Fowley (RUNAWAYS, ALICE COOPER, KISS), and being an integral part of the formation of GUNS N ROSES and LA GUNS. Following the successful split release with the legendary FANG, SYMBOL SIX is back with their hardest rocking album to date.

Dirtyland is masterfully produced and engineered by Philco Raves (Mystic Records) and remastered for CD format with completely different artwork than the LP format and a CD-only bonus track. Dirtyland was originally going to be on vinyl only, but the demand from fans to have it available on CD format was overwhelming, so we decided to go all out and change it up completely, price it to move, and make it a must-have release for both newcomers and long time fans alike. We've gone balls out and have a huge press mail-out of the album to over 150 domestic and international publications.

MARKETING POINTS:

- Completely different artwork from July's vinyl format
- New CD-only bonus track!
- New publicity & press agency moving forward as well as massive touring.
- Successful club show at Punk Rock Bowling 2014
- Numerous full editorials on the band in Razorcake, OX, Punk Globe, and several other European fanzines
- Featured in the book We Got Power, Hardcore Punk Scenes from Southern California, American Hardcore, A Tribal History, as well as "Slog, the Movie" and way too many other publications and documentary films to even begin to list!
- European tour in 2015
- Comes on the heels of a 2013 Dr. Strange Records re-release of its debut E.P with bonus tracks, a brand new 2014 RSD split with FANG, and a huge resurgence of the band in old school punk rock circles, as well as a legion of new fans drawn to the bands old school style, and rock n roll roots
- Music video shot for the title track with none other than Edward Colver behind the camera!

Spencer Moody is best known as a founding member and lead vocalist of THE MURDER CITY DEVILS. The band released two full lengths on Sub Pop as well as a number of singles and EPs from 1996-2001. They developed a cult following through those years and toured with the likes of PEARL JAM, AT THE DRIVE-IN, BUILT TO SPILL, and MODEST MOUSE.

APRIL MARCH

Paris In April, LP

STREET DATE: BACK IN PRINT!

INFORMATION:

Artist Hometown: Los Angeles

Key Markets: U.S., Europe, Japan

For Fans of: FRANCOISE HARDY, FRANCE GALL, SYLVIE VARTAN, SERGE GAINSBOURG's 60'S FRENCH POP

Ooh La La!!! Released in 1996, Paris In April is still gaining momentum.

Well-received and immediately touted and recommended by critics and fans alike when it was first released, it skyrocketed after the inclusion of "Chick Habit" in Quentin Tarantino's film, DEATH PROOF. Many have commented that the APRIL MARCH version actually trumps the original by FRANCE GALL. The French version, "Laisse Tomber Les Filles" also appears on this album. The LP sides are split featuring an English side and French language side and it's this that fans have really responded to. The recording includes appearances by cult faves, ANDY PALEY and JONATHAN RICHMAN.

After many years out of print it is available again in its original, ridiculously expensive hand-wrapped gatefold cover. Paris In April is an undeniable joyride beaming with indie sass and style in spades— a definite highlight and one of the proudest moments in Sympathy's semi-illustrious career!

MARKETING POINTS:

- The most successful recording of this genre since its original artists
- Cult fave after appearance in Tarantino film, DEATH PROOF soundtrack
- A beautiful gatefold cover limited to 1000 copies

STREET DATE: BACK IN PRINT!

INFORMATION:

Artist Hometown: Los Angeles

Key Markets: U.S., Europe, Japan

For Fans of: Country, Blues, Punk, Genre-defying amazing music !!

Originally released on Chris Stein's Animal Records in 1983, Death Party was a 5-track 12". Squeezed in between the release of Miami and Las Vegas Story and featuring yet another line-up featuring Dee Pop (BUSH TETRAS), Jimmy Uliana and Jim Duckworth (PANTHER BURNS) and Jeffrey Lee Pierce sharing guitar duties. Out of print and unavailable for many years it was long considered the holy grail for GUN CLUB fans. The original recording was remastered in 2004 and 7 live tracks from a radio broadcast on Radio Geneva were included and then released on Sympathy. The live tracks feature Jeffrey Lee Pierce on piano, guitar and vocals. The comments between the live tracks are alone worth the price of admission. Of the five original tracks, "The Lie" and "House On Highland Avenue" are certainly two of Jeffrey's outstanding moments and the title track, "Death Party" is hypnotic and repetitive in all the right ways and has been written that it rivals THE DOORS and THE BIRTHDAY PARTY at their best. Come to the Death Party- you ain't got nothing' to lose!

MARKETING POINTS:

Originally released on Chris Stein's Animal Records in 1984, Las Vegas Story was the GUN CLUB's third studio album. Out of print and unavailable for many years it was remastered in 2004 and released on Sympathy. Many consider it to be their most satisfying and visionary offering. This release marked the return of Kid Congo on lead guitar, a founding member who had left the band to serve time in THE CRAMPS. It was also the first recording appearance of Patricia Morrison who had been a touring member for a considerable time. To call Las Vegas Story inspiring and influential are vast understatements. The songwriting and musicianship are nothing short of stellar and it appeared on many "best of" lists for 1984...The choices for covers of Gershwin and Pharaoh Sanders signal the adventurous journey THE GUN CLUB were on during this recording. Las Vegas Story is primitive, brooding, provocative and in moments near shambolic... all the elements essential for music to stand the test of time. Las Vegas Story is a glorious testament from one of the most respected bands to ever come out of Los Angeles.

- Highly touted third album by legendary Los Angeles band

Originally released on Chris Stein's Animal Records in 1982. Following the scorching debut, Fire Of Love, was a not an easy task, but Miami was released to rave accolades by virtually every critic who heard it. Out of print for years, it was remastered and released in 2004 on Sympathy and the LP version quickly sold out and has not been available again until now.

Ward Dotson's exquisite slide guitar, Terry Graham's unrelenting percussion and Rob Ritter's unmistakable bass lines provide an inspired backdrop for some of Jeffrey Lee Pierce's most compelling, haunting and as usual off-kilter vocals. The lyrics, well for good reason many consider Jeffrey Lee Pierce to be one of the most gifted poets/songwriters of the last 30 years. Miami features numerous GUN CLUB classics including "Sleeping In Blood City", "Bad Indian" and the sorrowful, "Mother Of Earth". Fueled by Pierce's personal demons Miami is beautiful, emotional and an undeniably possessed musical masterpiece.

Showdown! 1981-1993 is a collection of songs from this Swedish punk band's six albums and their many singles, compilation tracks and unreleased recordings. It includes is an illustrated 24-page booklet outlining THE NOMADS' history. This 42-song, two-CD set features material recorded by THE NOMADS from 1981 through 1993. The first CD features the best tracks from the band's albums and singles, while the second CD consists primarily of rarities, outtakes, and live performances. Most of THE NOMADS songs are remakes, and even the originals are indebted to other musicians; for example, "Where the Wolf Bane Blooms" borrows the guitar line from "Borderline" by DMZ, "Call Off Your Dogs" was written for the band by JEFFREY LEE PIERCE of the GUN CLUB and PETER CASE of THE PLIMSOULS, and "Beyond the Valley of the Dolls" features guest lead guitar by JOHNNY THUNDERS. While the group may not be innovative, they are a very good garage punk cover band, as proven by their fiery renditions of songs by the STRANGELOVES ("Night Time," STANDELLS ("Sometimes Good Guys Don't Wear White"), TOMMY BELL ("Swamp Gal"), and others. Overall this is a solid, entertaining collection, and a great introduction to future NOMADS' fans!

MARKETING POINTS:

For Fans of: COMPULSIVE GAMBLERS, REIGNING SOUND, TEARJERKERS

OBLIVIANS were a three-piece band so far ahead of their time people are still trying to catch up with them. Jack, Eric and Greg all wrote songs and live it was a constant exercise in musical chairs for pole position. This manic slab was originally released in 1994. From their hometown of Memphis, Tennessee they created a wild lurid strain of punk rock that leveled all (then and today) pretenders to the throne. Comparisons could be THE BLUES EXPLOSION, THE MUMMIES and of course all the psychotic southern trash that preceded them. This 10" features eight tracks, each a lo-fi crunch masterpiece. You get original classics like; "Five Hour Man", "Feel Real Good" and "Shut My Mouth". You also get a lovely cover featuring Tennessee cutie, Miss D'iana Tunnell.

Today, 20 years later, each of them have gone on to infamy with their their own groups and ventures still informing young hopefuls on how to rip it up good and proper.

Originally available in an edition of 300 copies in 1995 on Negro Records, Rock n' Roll Holiday was re-released in 2003 on SYMPATHY and was out of print again very shortly after. Considerable demand and reasonable logic dictates that the time is right to make this brutal live attack available once more. Recorded in 1994 in Atlanta this recording captures OBLIVIANS at their crudest/rudest best. Nearly an homage (albeit a fucked-up one) to Lightning Hopkins as 7 of the 16 tracks are lifted from his catalog and delivered with OBLIVIANS trademark abandon. Rock n' Roll Holiday is a 45-minute attack of manic and obsessively crude blues/trash/rock delivered to an undeniably enthusiastic crowd.

OBLIVIANS formed in 1993 and were/are (when the mood strikes them) a world famous trash trio from Memphis, Tennessee. They toured the U.S., Japan and Europe extensively and built a fanatical following that continues to grow today. The OBLIVIANS were so far ahead of their time people are still trying to catch up with them. Jack, Eric and Greg all wrote songs and their live show was a constant exercise in musical chairs for pole position. "Six Of The Best" was their second 10" produced for Sympathy and originally released in 1996. OBLIVIANS created a wild, lurid strain of musical mayhem that leveled all (then and today) pretenders to the throne. Comparisons could be THE BLUES EXPLOSION, THE MUMMIES and of course all the psychotic southern trash that preceded them. Contrary to it's title this 10" features seven tracks, each a lo-fi masterpiece. You get original classics like; "Clones", "Can't Afford You" and "Memphis Creep". OBLIVIANS, with their undeniable swagger and reckless abandon, insured their place as one of the most prominent bands in the underground punk rock scene. 20 years later, each of the members has gone on to infamy with their own groups and ventures still informing young hopefuls on how to rip it up good and proper.

For Fans of: Country, Blues, Punk, Genre-defying amazing music

Originally released on Big Time in 1987, Neurotica is REDD KROSS at their artistic peak and there are those (lots of those) who consider it to be one of the definitive records of the 80's. Re-released in 2002 by Five Foot Two Records and Sympathy, Neurotica is loud, melodic, boisterous (in the best way) genuinely inspired and completely unrelenting headbanging pop. They have been consistent through the years always embracing worthy counter-culture icons musically and otherwise and in the end became irreplaceable icons themselves. It is an immense sacrilege and is totally un-American that there are not statues paying homage to REDD KROSS all over the land.

MARKETING POINTS:

- Praised by SONIC YOUTH and NIRVANA
- Out of print on vinyl since 2002
- It is an absolutely essential album, plain and simple!

North Carolina's KILLWHITNEYDEAD are ready to unleash their new album, Suffer My Wrath. Its first new material since 2007's Nothing Less Nothing More and Hell To Pay double shot, the 10-track album finds the band at a crossroads. Having since dropped off the touring circuit back in 2010, the band was allowed the freedom to record the album at their own pace during the past two years and they believe it shows. Now entering their 12th year of existence, KILLWHITNEYDEAD's origins are deeply rooted in the early deathcore scene, but on Suffer My Wrath, the group steps away from the genre's stylistic confines, creating something much more alluring.
