For Fans of: THE VENTURES, THE CREEPY CREEPS, THE TRASHMEN, THE CHANTAYS

THE AVENGERS VI were a clean-cut surf band from Anaheim, Calif., whose one and only album, Real Cool Hits, was issued in 1966 as a promo for Good Humor ice cream. The group's name wasn't even mentioned on the cover although it was pictured on the kick drum. The LP, originally issued on the Mark 56 label, was sold from the Good Humor ice cream trucks and has since become a highly-valued collector's item. In 2008 an original copy went for $315 in an online auction. What set THE AVENGERS VI apart from many of the other surf groups was their superior musicianship. Guitarist Jim Ferguson was reported to practice eight hours a day while organist Mike DeYoung had formal musical training and a wide knowledge of classical music. The group's repertoire, which encompassed covers of popular surf instrumentals, mood music, movie themes and some first rate originals, attracted both teens and adults to their appearances in southern California. THE AVENGERS VI had largely been forgotten, except by die-hard collectors, until Bacchus Archives reissued Real Cool Hits on both vinyl and CD in 2001. The vinyl reissue has itself become collectible, bringing prices of $30 and up, which is why we've decided to repress this gem! (Thanks to Bill Kay - All That Jazz blogspot for the write-up)

INFORMATION:

Artist Hometown: South Florida

Key Markets: Miami, Tampa, Los Angeles, U.K.

For Fans of: PINK LINCOLNS, RAT CAFETERIA, AMEN, HATED YOUTH

The band F was formed in 1982 & released their first 12-inch record You Are An E.P. a year later. Prior to its release, the band broke up into two bands one punk rock & the other '70's-style heavy metal - with the same name & performing the same songs in their respective styles. This miniscule controversy - as well as a number of childish & unfriendly pranks - brought the band to the attention of the South Florida scene. For an effect probably not half as comical as they thought at the time, F adopted the newly minted straight edge pose, complete with Xs etc., while drinking heavily & behaving like spoiled, self-destructive, carnivorous swine. The band was scheduled to have a full-length release out of Jello Biafra's label Alternative Tentacles, but in true F style, the band simply forgot about it and pressed it on another label. This 7" features two F songs that have never been heard! A must have for any fan of FL Hardcore.

On the flip side DUKE DECTER premieres a brand new song from the DUKE DECTER ARMY with the promise of staying as controversial as his band F has. Members have gone on to join THE EX-IDOLS, a reunion on The Henry Rollins Show. Casey Chaos and another member went on to start the popular metal band AMEN.

MARKETING POINTS:

- First new F material in 20 years
- Limited to 150 only, and never to be pressed again
- Comes on green, clear, and black vinyl with full color covers and inserts

For Fans of: THE CASUALTIES, KRUM BUMS, THE EXPLOITED, SUBHUMANS, THE UNSEEN, FU's, VIOLENT SOCIETY

SPECIAL DUTIES have been one of (if not the) most influential bands in street punk history. The band came into prominence with their 1982 album 77 in 82 (which spent over two months in the independent charts) and, as silly as it sounds, its chart topping (Top 20) U.K hits "Police State", "Too Much Talking" "Bullshit Crass" and "Punk Rocker". Not too much more can be said about the band that hasn't been said a million times. Cited by bands from THE UNSEEN, DEFIANCE, THE CASUALTIES, and more as being the sole reason for their existence. 77 One More Time has been in the making since last summer, and the response has been rabid! Fans from around the world are already lining up, and word of mouth has been nothing short of insane.

This album marks the first material in print since 1999's long out of print Singles Collection released on cd format only. This is SPECIAL DUTIES' first official full length vinyl release since 1997. We've gone over and beyond on this record with several limited colors, full color poster inserts, superb re-mastering from original sources to bring these 30+year old recordings to new life while retaining their classic sound, and solid packaging. This is Vol. 1 of a two volume series (with Vol. 2 scheduled for late this year) and finally a brand new record of all new material in late 2014/early 2015, as well as worldwide touring planned for much of 2015 and regional touring this year in support of the record. Jailhouse is also pulling out all the stops on this record, with ads in every relevant 'zine and website, posters and promotional materials sent to stores worldwide, a CD release of the record scheduled for August, and teaser promo CDs. Rarely have we been this proud of an album, and are humbled to release material from such a legendary band!

MARKETING POINTS:

- Several limited color variants along with 180 gram black vinyl
- LP is stuffed with all kinds of goodies, poster foldout, old photos, flyers and more
- This first pressing will be gone within a few weeks (only 500 of this pressing)!

Follow up to last year's debut full length Primal Play, expect more of the same, great blown out, grungy punk. Inspired by the RAMONES, HÜSKER DÜ as well as the 90s Seattle scene, PALE ANGELS take simple pop song writing as a starting point to get fuzzed out and weird. ### INFORMATION:

Artist Hometown: York, UK

Key Markets: New York, NY; Philadelphia, PA

For Fans of: CHUCK RAGAN, SAM RUSSO, FRANK TURNER, EMILY BARKER

After a fantastic 2013, this year only gets better for HELEN CHAMBERS, the Yorkshire-based singer/songwriter with the release of her debut album Penny Arcade. The album has been a long time coming and follows the release of a split EP with CHUCK RAGAN (Hot Water Music), SAM RUSSO and JIMMY ISLIP also released by Specialist Subject in 2011. Penny Arcade, once again, sees CHAMBERS collaborating with RAGAN as well as double bass player Joe Ginsberg (CHUCK RAGAN, BAYWOOD), DEAR EVERYONE band mates El Morgan and Kelly Kemp. Morgan Brown (DOWN & OUTS) and Paul Abbott (GOOD GRIEF) played guitar and piano, respectively, and produced the album over "a couple of long weekends" in Liverpool. The result captures CHAMBERS' take on traditional country, folk and Americana whilst maintaining a distinctly English sound.

Influenced by traditional folk artists like WOODY GUTHRIE, THE WATERSONS and EWAN MACCOLL, HELEN's music is passionate and engaging with a lot of heart. Her songs appeal not only to country, folk and Americana fans, but to punk rock and indie audiences too. Her dulcet tones are unlike anyone else's out there and, as simple as they are, these songs and the stories within them will bring a smile to your face, a tear to your eye and conjure up memories of good times passed before making you want to throw it all away and live life on the road.

MARKETING POINTS:

- Appearing at The Fest in Gainesville, FL
- East Coast tour with LAURA STEVENSON this October (dates TBC)
- Track "Banners" is an acapella duet with CHUCK RAGAN

Long time contributors to the underground punk and metal scenes the guys in BRAINOIL have put in time over the past 20 years in bands like GRIMPLE, DESTROY, LAUDANUM, STORMCROW and others. Death Of This Dry Season picks up the furious hardcore sludge sound that BRAINOIL is well known for as though they'd never left. A little older and a little wiser (?), Death Of This Dry Season is a short, sharp shock of intense aural battery, conceivably like an amalgamation of other ugly sounding Bay Area stalwarts such as ABSCCESS and BLACK COBRA, yet never sounding enough like anyone else to pinpoint a direct influence. Pure doom sludge hardcore punk freak music for fans of heavy ass down tuned thick riffs.

For Fans of: CARCINOGEN, MINDROT, KONTRAKLASSE, KICKER, NOOTHGRUSH

DYSTOPIA (1991-2008) Doom-ridden, metal-laced, down-tuned punk with a "Love Earth-Hate People" philosophy. Human=Garbage was the first full length (1994) released on the bands' own Life is Abuse and Misanthropic Records with help from Common Cause in Germany who booked the bands first European tour. From '91 to '93 DYSTOPIA existed as a four piece (with Dan Kaufman of MINDROT doing lead vocals). Included with this release are the tracks from splits with GRIEF and EMBITTERED both from 1993 and another only previously released on the first cd format of this collection. Visually DYSTOPIA took influence from both anarcho-punk collage art and graffiti culture. Blending images of societal decay, inner turmoil and humanity's destruction of the planet to create a style that goes hand in hand with the music. The 16-page lyric booklet included and the imagery contained are indispensable along side these 12 tracks. Out of print for years these songs find a new home at Tankcrimes. Now packaged as a double LP with 10" sized booklet including a digital download card (CD format also available). The pure anger and misery that is constantly present on this record make it undoubtedly one of the most disturbing, depressing and misanthropic records ever. An essential part of any sludge punk, crust metal or doom fan's collection.

- An essential crust, metal, doom release - now packaged as double LP for the first time including all tracks from the original cd format
- Pressed to clear vinyl with a digital download card included

INFORMATION:

Artist Hometown: Cleveland, Ohio

Key Markets: Ohio, California, Washington DC

For Fans of: 16, DYSTOPIA, SLOTH, CAVITY, FLOOR, ELECTRIC WIZARD, SLEEP, HIGH ON FIRE, CATTLE PRESS

TLAL proudly brings you FISTULA's newest LP, which if you're familiar with the label and the band you will do a massive double take... this is one slow band on a label known for putting out blistering fast bands. FISTULA plays evil, down-tuned sludge metal in the vein of 16 and CATTLE PRESS and have remained active for +15 years. When you hear this new offering you'll understand why this label jumped on this release... it is one twisted, crushing, slow but eye-gouging release with sparse but crucial fast parts. This is the release to grab after a terrible day at work when you need some audio catharsis.

MARKETING POINTS:

- Atypically slow release compared to normal releases from TLAL
- FISTULA has been active since 1998
- Doom/sludge/stoner metal has been on the upswing in the recent years
