JUDICATOR's third release, At The Expense Of Humanity, is a progressive power metal concept album about singer John Yelland's brother who passed away after battling cancer. The album details the story of John's family, their struggles, and his personal existential and philosophical quandaries that resulted. Musically, At The Expense Of Humanity, shows the band moving away from the Germanic power metal styles explored on their sophomore effort Sleepy Plessow and plunging into more progressive territories, as well as incorporating other elements they had yet to discover within themselves. At The Expense Of Humanity is a big, bold step for U.S. metal and JUDICATOR exhibits no signs of impeding its momentum now.

WULFHOOK, having formed in 2009, is a five-piece American heavy metal band from Detroit, Michigan. They have impressively self-financed three remarkable demos including 2012's stellar Sacrifice, which are the recordings that lead to their deal with Divebomb Records. Its debut album, The Impaler, is a culmination of years of hard work and overcoming unforeseen adversities along the way. The end result, which was mixed by Jamie King at his Basement Studios, is nothing short of magnificent. The Impaler, simply put, is an unrelenting sonic attack that reveals a band that is completely unaffected by what's popular or what other musicians are doing and is zeroed in on exactly what will make WULFHOOK stand out in the over-crowded underground scene. No tongue and cheek retro throwback, just straight up heavy metal.

MARKETING POINTS:

- Album mixed/mastered by Jamie King (BETWEEN THE BURIED & ME)
- Tour dates planned for Fall 2015
- Shared stages with ACCEPT, FLOTSAM & JETSAM, WARBRINGER, BATTLECROSS
- Includes cover of VAN HALEN's "Atomic Punk"
- Show stopping appearance at Warriors Of Metal Open Air Festival 2013
- Layout by Adam Peterson (WATCHTOWER, EPIDEMIC and SOLSTICE)

Artist Hometown: Birmingham, England

ERADIKATOR are a four-piece thrash metal band from Birmingham, England, the birthplace of heavy metal monsters such as BLACK SABBATH, JUDAS PRIEST and NAPALM DEATH. No strangers to Divebomb Records, ERADIKATOR have returned to the label after the successful release of their debut album, Dystopia, via the label's Bootcamp Series which not only reissues obscure lost treasures of the past, but also is a showcase for new artists through alternative promotion helping to support them while they get a foothold within the industry. Picking right up where Dystopia left off, the new album, Edge Of Humanity, was conceived with the help of producer Russ Russell (NAPALM DEATH, DIMMU BORGIR, EXPLOITED). Drawing on all their life and musical influences thus far, ERADIKATOR set out to steamroll through barriers plaguing new school thrash bands. Rather than simply cranking out up-tempo riffs and barrage of double kick drums to get fans excited, ERADIKATOR constructed thoughtfully crafted material choosing to reward listeners with an album that showcases their maturity and evolution as a band, while never giving up on the key elements that makes heavy metal great.

MARKETING POINTS:

- Album mixed & mastered by Russ Russell (NAPALM DEATH, DIMMU BORGIR, EXPLOITED)
- Tour dates planned for fall 2015
- Won "Metal To The Masses" contest
- Performed on "New Blood" stage at Bloodstock 2014
- 10/10 "Masterpiece" review in metal-temple.com
