LABEL DISTRIBUTION

Slope Records was founded in October of 2015, with a mission to document what is currently happening, what has happened, and provide a strong foundation to help build what is happening next in the punk rock world.

Slope Records releases are designed with the passionate record collector in mind. The 7", 10", and 12" EPs and LPs are culled from a combination of rare live recordings, previously recorded studio albums for re-release, and new projects selected by the label as the best of the best across several different genres rooted in punk music. Limited editions, colored vinyl, and amazing packaging are but a few of the excellent features out of our desert based headquarters.

Artist Hometown: Tempe, Arizona

Key Markets: Arizona, Southern California, Texas

For Fans of: DR. KNOW, RKL, POISON IDEA

This down-and-dirty recording of Tempe, Arizona's INSURRECTION comes from 1987. Though a more polished recording of this influential AZ hardcore band does not exist, this 7" is an important historical document of the mid-'80s Arizona punk scene. INSURRECTION – which featured Doug Curtis on vocals, Joe Agins, on guitar, Mike "Grinch" Grzyb on bass, and JR Dinero on drums – rubbed shoulders with some of the best bands in the desert scene (including JFA and SACRED REICH) while sharing stages with some of the top American and international bands throughout the late '80s.

MARKETING POINTS:

- Limited-edition run
- Sea blue vinyl
- Killer gatefold sleeve featuring classic flyers
- One-of-kind recording captures a slice of Phoenix punk in the late '80s

Key Markets: Arizona, Southern California, World

For Fans of: THE DWARVES, ANGRY SAMOANS, THE FREEZE

Gutter punk meets '80s hardcore with a lunatic for a frontman. Lenny Mental and his bandmates (Superstar Penis Demilo, Dirty Dooley, and PBR Destroyer) bash themselves, the listener, and anyone within earshot with six songs of utter chaos. THE BESMIRCHERS could give less than one fuck about anything other than having a good time, so if you're into blood, booze, dirty sex, and over-the-top punk rock, this is pure mayhem at its finest. Viva Old Pueblo punk!

STREET DATE: AVAILABLE NOW

INFORMATION:

Artist Hometown: Phoenix

Key Markets: Arizona, Southern California, World

For Fans of: Killed by Death comps, THE CONSUMERS, THE FEEDERZ, KILLER PUSSY

A classic is a classic is a classic. The songs on this RED SQUARES 7" are 35 years old but sound as vibrant today as when "Sonic" Mike Stephens, Robbie Anthony, and Mark Covell laid them down at Gilam Monster Studios in Phoenix in 1981. Initially released on Nanxiety Records and re-released as part of the infamous Killed by Death compilations (both the A and B sides were featured on different comps), this gorgeous slab of vinyl greatness will make you want to pick up a guitar, rock the fuck out, then smash it before anyone else can have any fun. RED SQUARES were punk rock before you were born.

MARKETING POINTS:

- Limited-edition run
- Red vinyl and gatefold, with photos and flyers from the early '80s
- Killed by Death collectors will want a copy of this. "Time Change" appears on Vol. 10 and "Modern Roll" appears on Vol. 666
- Cover art is a tribute to the original Nanxiety cover art from 1981

SURFBORT

Surfbort, 7"

STREET DATE: AVAILABLE NOW

INFORMATION:

Artist Hometown: Brooklyn

Key Markets: New York City, Austin, U.S., World

For Fans of: PUSSY GALORE, ROYAL TRUX, SONIC YOUTH, BIKINI KILL, G.G. ALLIN AND THE MURDER JUNKIES, MUDHONEY

This boy/girl quartet of art-damaged former addicts from Brooklyn takes punk rock nihilism to a new level, pissing on the world without worrying about getting a few drops on themselves. When SURFBORT (yes, named for a word coined by Beyoncé) sing about walking through the trash, you know it's not a metaphor. Leave that to the overeducated, underpaid Brooklyn indie bands SURFBORT scares the shit out of. Frontwoman Dani Miller confronts a doomed society with her disaffected howl while the band uncorks an uncompromising mix of arty sludge rock and barebones punk slop. SURFBORT is trending, fresh off a successful run at South by Southwest and song placement on the Comedy Central hit Broad City.

MARKETING POINTS:

- Beautiful gatefold packaging
- Collectible seven-inch on cool clear vinyl
- Back-to-back South by Southwest appearances
- Song placement on Comedy Central's Broad City
- Antagonizing Donald Trump

For Fans of: DWARVES, DEAD BOYS, MOTARDS, CIRCLE JERKS, THE FREEZE

There are too many bands, too many records, and too much crap out there. So where is the real stuff? It's right here, the real fucking deal! It's buzzsaw punk rawk 'n' roll that gets stuck in your brain like a fish hook. Austin's THE BULEMICS is for people leading the pack, not following it like sheep. Formed in 1996, THE BULEMICS once were voted "Best Punk Band" at the Austin Music Awards. They show up in the papers for great gigs worldwide and occasional behavior that law enforcement takes interest in. Cheetah Chrome didn't play on Something Wicked This Way Comes because the band sucks. You think Bushwick Bill of the GETO BOYS is going to appear on a record by a band that doesn't bring it? Get with the program. This thing is happening!

MARKETING POINTS:

- Super-cool oxblood-colored vinyl
- Guest appearances by the GETO BOYS' Bushwick Bill and Cheetah Chrome of the DEAD BOYS
- One of Austin's most beloved punk bands
- Twenty-year punk veterans return with their first full-length in 14 years

INFORMATION:

Artist Hometown: Phoenix

Key Markets: Arizona, U.S., Europe

For Fans of: JFA, THE WEIRDOS, ADOLESCENTS

Third-wave Phoenix punks OUR NEIGHBORS SUCK (ONS) rip through six screamers on Skullkrusher, a righteous slab of 10-inch yellow vinyl. Recorded across the late 1980s, Skullkrusher bleeds cool in the way Charles Manson probably envisioned his weird amalgamation of love, drugs, and violence conquering the world. Baked on drugs and fried by the sun, OUR NEIGHBORS SUCK was known for throwing a mean party, and the band's JFA-meets-Van Halen's debut was the perfect soundtrack to many an epic evening in the Valley of the Sun. The album's gatefold jacket features classic photos and flyers from back in the day.

MARKETING POINTS:

- Gatefold and yellow vinyl
- Rare recordings of a Phoenix favorite
- Old-school flyer reproductions

STREET DATE: AVAILABLE NOW

INFORMATION:

Artist Hometown: Austin, Texas

Key Markets: Texas, U.S., Europe

For Fans of: FLIPPER, DEVO, BUTTHOLE SURFERS, SISTERS OF MERCY

Imagine if early DEVO were your father and SISTERS OF MERCY were your mother, but Gibby Haynes of the BUTTHOLE SURFERS adopted you and raised you at the band's ranch in rural Texas. If you can picture that, you'll have the FUCKEMOS. The long-running Austin band plays demented dork rock with a mean streak. And they have the word "fuck" in their name, so it's got to be good.

MARKETING POINTS:

- Trippy Tang-colored orange vinyl
- Killer cover art by legendary underground artist Don Rock
- Previously unreleased material from one of Austin's longest-running bands

9. Helter Skelter

INFORMATION:

Artist Hometown: Phoenix

Key Markets: Arizona, U.S., Europe

For Fans of: 45 GRAVE, SUN CITY GIRLS, JFA, CHRISTIAN DEATH, MEAT PUPPETS, THE FEEDERZ

MIGHTY SPHINCTER's first official release in 15 years captures the legendary deathrock group's 1987 performance at London's famed Hammersmith Odeon, where the band's classic lineup played in support of its landmark The New Manson Family LP (Placebo Records). Of all the weirdo punk acts that emerged from the fertile late '70s/early '80s Phoenix underground scene, MIGHTY SPHINCTER might have been the weirdest (and most original). Setting the tone for the goth rock that soon would emerge worldwide in 1980s, MIGHTY SPHINCTER melded unusual time signatures and leader Doug Clark's punk/metal guitar riffing to create a spooky vibe before spooky vibes were cool. After a nearly 10-year hiatus, Clark re-launched a new incarnation of MIGHTY SPHINCTER in 2010, which continues to this day, but it's Undead at the Hammersmith Odeon 1987 that catches the band performing at the peak of its mysteriously sinister powers.

MARKETING POINTS:

- Gatefold and clear vinyl
- Rare, previously unreleased recording
- Legendary pioneers in the deathrock/horror punk genre

INFORMATION:

Artist Hometown: Austin, Texas

Key Markets: Austin, Texas, California, U.S., Europe

For Fans of: FLIPPER, BUTTHOLE SURFERS, DEVO, SISTERS OF MERCY

Originally released in 1994 on Frank Kozik's Man's Ruin record label, FUCKEMOS' Can Kill You takes you on a trip to the birthplace of psychedelic punk, Austin, Texas. Now available for the first time on vinyl, FUCKEMOS' debut is a class of the genre, a wacked-out mix of crunchy riffs, undeniable pop hooks, and a whole mess of BUTTHOLE SURFERS-inspired madness. It's a stroke of unparalleled unoriginality. And to make the intoxicating concoction even more potent, singer Russell Porter's vocal tracks were pitch-shifted so that they sound like a 45 being played at 33. The result: an absurd yet appealing take on doom metal created before the genre even existed. Combine these 13 tracks with brand-new original cover art from longtime outsider Austin artist Don Rock (who illustrated for the BUTTHOLE SURFERS) and space-age silver vinyl and you've got a must-have for fans of Texas-style psych punk.

MARKETING POINTS:

- Re-issue of FuckEmos' classic 1994 debut record
- Available on vinyl for the first time ever
- Original artwork by revered Austin underground artist Don Rock (BUTTHOLE SURFERS)
- Gatefold jacket and collectible silver vinyl

INFORMATION:

Artist Hometown: Phoenix

Key Markets: Arizona, U.S., Europe

For Fans of: DICTATORS, DEAD BOYS, NEW BOMB TURKS, AC/DC, GIRLSCHOOL, CHINESE MILLIONAIRES

Bred in Michigan and raised in Arizona, Phoenix-based punk 'n' rollers SCORPION VS. TARANTULA deliver the best kind of swift kick in the balls with this six-song 10-inch EP. After three killer long-players, the band serves up some of its best material to date on Scorpion vs. Tarantula, which hones the group's high-impact blend of no-frills hard rock and bare-knuckled '77-style punk to an edge that would do a scalpel proud. Featuring five new originals and a revved-up cover of the Pandoras' "You're All Talk," Scorpion vs. Tarantula has everything you want from one of Phoenix's best live acts – big, snarling guitars, plenty of pile-driving backbeat, and the glorious banshee howl of front-gal L. Hotshot. If you're looking for the dangerous fun you get from revving a Harley up to 120 mph, but without having to leave the house, Scorpion vs. Tarantula is just the slab of vinyl you've been looking for.

MARKETING POINTS:

- Collectible 10-inch gray vinyl and stunning gatefold jacket, including lyrics
- Hair-raising female vocals by Phoenix's best frontwoman
- Ripping cover of the Pandoras' "You're All Talk," recorded by legendary Detroit producer Jim Diamond (WHITE STRIPES, DIRTBOMBS)
- The newest project by the founder of '90s garage punk luminaries CHINESE MILLIONAIRES (Rip Off Records)

For Fans of: GBH, DISCHARGE, SUBHUMANS, EXPLOITED

Slaying their way across Texas, the United States, and Europe, THE SCANDALS' unrelenting brand of street punk slaughters everything in its path. Like MOTORHEAD on a four-day speed binge, this long-running Austin band is equal parts fury and fuck you, coming the thrash-y riffs of DISCHARGE, the barking vocals of THE EXPLOITED, and the pummeling drive and tight songwriting of GBH. "Can't Stop Us," from the band's new This Country Is Going to Hell EP is as much a challenge to anyone standing in the way of THE SCANDALS as it is an extension of the band's mission statement: Play music, tour forever. On swamp green vinyl packaged in a cool gatefold jacket featuring deadly cover art, THE SCANDALS' new four-song 7-inch EP is as pointed as liberty spikes and is essential listening for fans of UK82 street rock.

Released a year after their groundbreaking 1994 debut, Can You Kill, FUCKEMOS' The Lifestyles of the Drugged and Homeless is another exploration of the kind of demented psych punk that seems to flourish in the band's hometown of Austin. This time out, the material is catchier and the performances are tighter, but the overall impact remains the same: hallucinogenic-fueled lunacy. Long out of print, The Lifestyles of the Drugged and Homeless is getting the reissue it deserves!

For Fans of: FLIPPER, BUTTHOLE SURFERS, SISTERS OF MERCY

Shortly after recording the tracks that would make up their 1994 psych-punk classic Can Kill You, Austin's FUCKEMOS graduated from making living room recordings to tracking in a professional studio. Done on the cheap, the quick and dirty session resulted in Tape 2, a 14-song collection that now is enjoying its first official release, some 20-plus years after it was recorded. The touchstones that made Can Kill You so brilliant are amplified on Tape 2: thicker guitars, boomier drums, and an improved overall sonic clarity. And singer Russell Porter's pitch-shifted vocals, mostly improvised in one take, are as gonzo as ever. Tape 2 is a must-have for FUCKEMOS die-hards, a long sought-after nugget for fans of classic Austin psych punk.
