There are many 'hardcore' bands in the early to mid 80's that were well known because of their politics ; stage show or personalities offstage. Then there were bands that just were out there to play hard, fast intense 'hardcore' and knock you off your feet by the sheer power of their music and have a blast at it. This would be Massachusetts' CANCEROUS GROWTH.

Starting out by playing fast 'hardcore' and gradually getting even faster and more thrash as time went on. INFORMATION:

Artist Hometown: Milwaukee, WI

Key Markets: Milwaukee, WI and the worldwide community that enjoys & collects early 80's hardcore.

For Fans of: DIE KREUZEN, BLACK FLAG, CIRCLE JERKS

THE CRUSTIES are a legendary, extremely tight, early/mid 80's, Milwaukee WI based band known for playing fast aggressive hardcore and putting their own take on how it should be played.

Their music pushes hardcore past the limits, and expands upon what most bands were doing at that time. They integrated interesting guitar parts along with super-swift tempo changes and stops. They threw in an occasional trumpet riff, along with overt and aggressive jazz influences. It all combined to make up one of the fastest playing, and musically unique bands, ever.

Every time they played, it was obvious these guys were having a blast, but they took their songs (and their musicianship) very seriously. Practicing several times a week was not uncommon for these guys. Neither was their singer's propensity for blowing giant balls of fire out of his mouth at shows!

From 1984 until 1987 THE CRUSTIES played any number of shows in their hometown of Milwaukee, as well as many neighboring states. They even got a few tours under their belts, traveling the Midwest and Southern United States. They opened for legendary bands like THE CIRCLE JERKS, MEAT PUPPETS, HUSKER DU, SAMHAIN, MDC, SUICIDAL TENDENCIES, along with MOTORHEAD and THE BODEANS. After THE CRUSTIES opened up for THE DEAD KENNEDY'S, Jello Biafra remarked how THE CRUSTIES were a breath of fresh air, when compared to what they had seen on the road that year. In 1987, with their singer moving to Austin TX, THE CRUSTIES went on hiatus. They managed to get together at least once a year, to play shows when their singer would come back to visit. So they never really broke up.

And now, Beer City Skateboards and Records is proud to bring you THE CRUSTIES on their first and only full length album: THE CRUSTIES - Crustunes. This is a limited edition, completely restored and re-mastered RSD 2016 reissue. After being out of print for nearly 30 years this musical gem will finally be reissued (for the first time on vinyl,) to the delight of many fans world-wide! This release contains 16 tracks of fast, aggressive, unique music that will leave you begging for more, and wishing you could witness the live carnage of THE CRUSTIES! Not only has the audio been completely restored and re-mastered, but this release also contains a brand new inner sleeve, complete with lyrics and flyers! To top it all off this is a limited edition, just 1000 copies on translucent red vinyl.

So don't miss out on this piece of unique hardcore/punk history. Get down to your local record store on 'Record Store' day and pick up this legendary reissue!

INFORMATION:

Artist Hometown: Los Angeles

Key Markets: Los Angeles

For Fans of: BRIGHT EYES, GREEN DAY, RANCID, JOHN LENNON

ROECKER | MELODY is the product of filmmaker JOHN ROECKER and musician DYLAN MELODY, who started writing music together in 2010. Inspired by music, film and everything in between, the band can be roughly described as an alternative mash of distortion, power chords, hooky melodies, crooning vocals and unrivaled lyrical content. It's hard to categorize ROECKER | MELODY music because it's so—like the artists—bipolar. Some songs are riddled with pop melodies and power chords, others have slide guitar and finger picking, some are just waves of distortion and feedback. One thing is consistent with all the songs: they are a complete 50 - 50 split of lyrics and melodies. The writing process is comprised of three key elements : 1. Alcohol 2. Guitar 3. Research. ROECKER | MELODY was founded with the idea of drawing inspiration from “the greats” and not some sell-out, carbon copy bands. The goal has always been to write relatable truths behind every lyric and pour passion into every word sung. JOHN ROECKER is influenced by artists like BOWIE, JUDY GARLAND, BRIAN ENO and BOB DYLAN, that push the boundaries of music and aim to broaden the awareness of this declining society. DYLAN MELODY is influenced by artists such as SINATRA, JOHN LENNON, MUSE AND JAMES BROWN whose technical compositions are unrivaled and passionate crooning and belting send shivers through your spine. ROECKER | MELODY releases its first full length album One Foot On The Mattress, The Other On The Floor for Record Store Day 2016 . Based in Los Angeles, the band is constantly at work in its home studio pumping out fresh ideas, developing new concepts and out playing lots of live shows!
