INFERI is an American melodic death metal band forged from the bowels of Nashville, Tennessee. The band formed in 2006 and strived to merge the classic melodic metal sound with a taste of crushing technicality. After releasing Divinity in War in 2007 and The End of an Era in 2009, lead guitarist, Malcolm Pugh ( A LOATHING REQUIEM, Ex-ENTHEOS, Ex-DISKREET, Ex-ENFOLD DARKNESS ) decided to reignite the fire. Recruiting Mike Low ( OUBLIETTE, Ex-ENFOLD DARKNESS ) on guitar and Jack Blackburn (Ex- VITAL REMAINS , Ex-ENFOLD DARKNESS ) on drums, the plan was clear - musical annihilation.

INFERI sets themselves outside of the generic pack by mixing melodious, yet technical musicianship with virtuosic songwriting rarely since in today's extreme metal acts. In Early 2014, INFERI released their third critically acclaimed smash hit, The Path of Apotheosis , that topped most AOTY charts, sold thousands worldwide and currently has over 200k streamed views.

Their 2018 release of Revenant on to hit multiple Billboard charts, along with streaming over 1.3 million online streams.

INFORMATION:

ARTIST HOMETOWN: USA

KEY MARKETS: Worldwide Metal Community

FOR FANS OF: FRANKE & THE KNOCKOUTS, JOE LYNN TURNER, SPYS, HONEYMOON SUITE & TYCOON

The decades-long career of respected guitarist Bobby Messano picked up steam in the mid- to late-'70s with acts such as STANKY BROWN and STARZ. Gravitating toward session work around 1980, MESSANO would contribute to albums from a range of different artists—Peter Criss and Joe Lynn Turner among them—as well as touring alongside heavyweights like Steve Winwood, Lou Gramm, and more. For a portion of that era, Bobby had also joined rockers FRANKE & THE KNOCKOUTS, performing (and co-writing two tracks) on their 1984 album, Makin' the Point.

Toward the end of the '80s, MESSANO also stepped up to present his debut solo album, having assembled a backing band consisting of Erik Boyd (bass), Joey Zee (keyboards), and Mike Gage (drums). Recorded with Jim Barg at The Barge Sound Studio in Wayne, NJ, Bobby handled lead vocals, guitar, bass, and the bulk of the songwriting. That being said, two cuts nodded to his past: "Hide Our Love Away (Tell Me Why)" was first recorded by FRANKE & THE KNOCKOUTS under the title "Carrie Why?," and "Sing It, Shout It" was a Starz cover from 1977.

Released by Strategic—a division of Relativity Records—in 1989, the 11-song album has become a bit of a cult classic over the years for fans of top-shelf, hook-fueled melodic hard rock. MESSANO wouldn't release another solo album until 1998—the blues-based Dominion Roads—but has remained an active and highly regarded force in the blues community since that time.

30 years later, Divebomb Records is excited to reissue this underrated AOR treasure. Newly remastered with a whopping five bonus tracks, the disc will be presented with a typically detailed booklet featuring a retrospective interview with Bobby Messano himself. For the fans, by the fans!

MARKETING POINTS:

INFORMATION:

ARTIST HOMETOWN: Texas

KEY MARKETS: Worldwide Metal Community

FOR FANS OF: JOURNEY, HONEYMOON SUITE, FRONTLINE, GIUFFRIA & STRANGWAYS

Little-known Texas act KNIGHTS REIGN formed when ex-LIX members Tony Marsh (guitar) and Mike Reiner (drums) joined forces with vocalist Tim King, previously of BALTIC AVENUE. Tim then recruited T.J. Ostrander on keyboards, and the quartet located bassist Jason Rasberry through a local friend who owned an area music store. The quintet quickly developed a uniquely progressive sound centered predominantly around hard-hitting guitars and full-band vocal harmonies, drawing influences from all sorts of hard rock and metal, and even characteristics of blues or funk. A catalog of songs were crafted over the course of about one year during the early-'90s and recorded in a temporary studio set up in Reiner's home. The result was a self-recorded, self-produced, and self-released 12-song CD issued through Perisphere Records in 1994.

Shortly afterward, John Bedinghaus replaced Rasberry on bass and KNIGHTS REIGN soldiered on, writing and demoing songs intended for a second album through the latter part of the decade. While that material displayed a more mature and focused approach—at times even coming across like a harder-edged JOURNEY—being located in an area with little to no opportunities for higher-profile live performances, the group simply ran its course and drew to an end. Their lone self-titled CD has since become an extremely rare collector's item, having only been sold directly by the band, and never repressed...

...until now! Over two decades later, Divebomb Records is elated to present the complete discography of KNIGHTS REIGN: over 75 minutes of music, including five previously unreleased bonus tracks culled from demos for the incomplete second album. Remastered by Jamie King at The Basement Recording, the disc will come complete with lyrics, photographs, and a retrospective interview on the history of the band. For the fans, by the fans!
