FOR FANS OF: Something out of the ordinary

If you don't know about PUDDLES PITY PARTY you are missing an amazing talent. Called a veritable "Pagliacci by way of Pee-Wee Herman and David Lynch". Seeing him perform live was one of the greatest nights I've ever had. He has been playing extensively in the States as well as abroad since his appearances on America's Got Talent (yeah, I know lame show) It took a bit of serious coercion, but finally Sympathy talked him into blessing us with a single. What we got is so much more than I could've hoped for. Two Bowie tracks. "Space Oddity" has over three million views on youtube. Seems this should sell a few records.

"It seems like a parody. But when Puddles opens his mouth to sing, it's beautiful. Operatic." - The Boston Globe

"Fantastically brilliant...originality at its best." - Simon Cowell

"His special effect is a textured voice laced with melancholy...what makes him transcend the trope is his vulnerability." - The New York Times

MARKETING POINTS:

- Red and white vinyl copies
- Playing to sold out shows all across U.S.
- Millions of views of these tracks on youtube

FOR FANS OF: MR. AIRPLANE MAN, Dark Lustful Swampy Ethereal Garage Punk Spirituals

Margaret Garret of MR AIRPLANE MAN offers her first solo recording after a very successful solo tour of Europe. Live at Charles River Museum of Industry conjures a realm and delivers it sans smoke mirrors of recording production. This bed of dreamy rhythm, which is in direct lineage to the most transcendental of folk blues, serves as a catalyst for those raw, visceral leads. It's a space and its genuine, powerful & healing, it's not saccharine escapism, but a sonic balm for the soul. Its respite from the horrors of the time but its straightforward approach & dedication to drone & repetition offers relief & refuge in the deeper chambers of the psyche. As half of acclaimed MR AIRPLANE MAN Margaret is referred worldwide and their last album, "Jacaranda Blue" (on Sympathy) was voted one of the best albums of 2018 by LA Weekly.

MARKETING POINTS:

- Debut solo LP by acclaimed guitarist/singer of Mr Airplane Man
- Margaret just completed successful tour in Europe
- limited to 1000 copies

JOSIE COTTON

Ukranian Cowboy / Cold War Spy, 7"

STREET DATE: DECEMBER 13, 2019

ARTIST: JOSIE COTTON
TITLE: Ukranian Cowboy / Cold War Spy
LABEL: Sympathy For The Record Industry
CAT#: SFTRI808-7
FORMAT: 7" Single
GENRE: Glorious Pop
BOX LOT: -
SRLP: $6.98
UPC: 790276080874
EXPORT: No Restrictions

TRACK LIST:

Side A: Ukranian Cowboy
Side B: Cold War Spy

INFORMATION:

ARTIST HOMETOWN: Hollywood, California

KEY MARKETS: United States/Canada/Europe/Japan/Australia

FOR FANS OF: Something out of the ordinary

JOSIE COTTON is an American singer and songwriter, best known for international hit, "Johnny Are You Queer?" and "He Could Be the One" from 1982. "Johnny Are You Queer?" was used on the soundtracks to Jackass Number Two and Valley Girl. "He Could Be the One" was used in Valley Girl.

This is the first release on JOSIE COTTON's brand new Kitten Robot label. The vinyl version is being released by Sympathy.

JOSIE headlined Tiki Oasis in San Diego in August and was a smash success. JOSIE has a new album coming soon.

Says JOSIE, "You could say this is an unintentional Communist concept-record. I didn't plan it that way... If you can ever plan being unintentional. I've just always been fascinated with human behavior and the tyranny of ideas. I also find them absurdly funny like an insane puppet show. We're living in strange times. I'm just rearranging the puppets in a musical with a warning label. And I get to say 'the purge of Stalin' in a pop song... how rich is that?"

The tracks:

Ukranian Cowboy

Cowgirl meets Bolshevik falls for Bolshevik dumps Bolshevik by horseback.

Cold War Spy

Mod double-agent boyfriend infiltrates Stasi in East Germany and has his soul removed.

MARKETING POINTS:

- Colored vinyl
- Known all over the world for, "Johnny Are You Queer"
- Known and loved for performance in Valley Girls
