BEER CITY SKATEBOARDS AND RECORDS is proud to bring back another skate rock / thrash metal / crossover classic. THE BONELESS ONES - Skate For The Devil! On vinyl for the first time since its initial press in 1986.

THE BONELESS ONES formed in 1984. Inspired by the Thrasher Skate Rock tapes (That had just been released) and driven by many skate related bands of the time; BIG BOYS, JFA and of course, CODE OF HONOR. After two years playing countless shows across California Skate For The Devil was recorded and unleashed to the masses! It was quickly eaten up by not only skateboarders , punks and metalheads , but it also gained mainstream attention from reviews and interviews in Playboy, Cream and of course Thrasher who backed these guys from the start.

In typical high profile treatment we're proud to bring the reissue of Skate For The Devil. Not only has this album been completely restored and remastered, it contain liner notes from the band and contains two bonus tracks; the classic 'Keg Kept a Flowin' from their appearance on Thrasher's - 'Skate Rock Volume 3 - Wild Riders Of Boards!' and Love to Hate, which have both also been restored and remastered for enhanced audio brilliance.

This is the perfect sound track to any party, skate session or for that night you spin records at your local punk bar or club ... So skate on down to your local record store June 12th and pick this up!

MARKETING POINTS:

- Advertising campaign in print and online
- Tracks from the release have been used on soundtracks, including 'The Bounty Hunter' & 'The Wimpy Kid" part one, two & three
- Has a wide range appeal to not only metal heads and punks, but skateboarders and fans of the Skate Rock genre.
- THE BONELESS ONES are back together and have been playing large shows again
