FOR FANS OF: HEATHEN, FORBIDDEN, TOXIK & HERETIC

By mid-1986, after heavy metal cover band OZIAS—featuring guitarists Brent Chasteen and Mark Engel—fell apart while transitioning toward writing original material, the foundation was laid for DEUS VULT's formation. Brent and Mark hooked up with drummer Virgil D.B., and by 1987 had secured Tom Mangan on bass and Duane Harmon on vocals—a lineup that would produce the band's debut three-song demo in 1988. Shortly after that demo, Duane was replaced by former THRUSTER frontman Aaron Thomas, and DEUS VULT's most prolific run began.

Before year's-end 1988, the unit crossed into Kentucky to hit Group Effort Sound Studios, resulting in an hour-long 13-song demo of impressively taut and aggressive thrash. 1989 saw the quintet re-record "Twilight's Last Gleaming" for the now-collectible Heavy Artillery compilation from Auburn Records—appearing alongside Ohio-based acts such as BREAKER, HATRIX, PURGATORY, etc. 1990's proper cassette EP, Soul Assault, was then recorded at Queen City Music—the result of funding from taking first prize in a local Battle of the Bands competition—with assistance from guitar legend David T. Chastain on its final mix. Unfortunately, DEUS VULT's increasingly dark and technical brand of thrash failed to achieve wider distribution at the time, as financial shortages are rumored to have limited Soul Assault to as few as 150 copies.

Personnel shake-ups eventually landed on Aaron Thomas taking over bass in addition to vocals, and in 1991 the group completed their final six-song demo at Ultrasuede Studios (formerly Queen City Music). As with Soul Assault, these sessions yielded increasingly long songs that—while retaining a rugged sense of aggression—were becoming more melodic, complex, and adventurous. Sadly, the recordings were never officially circulated, as Aaron left the band, which ultimately signaled the end for DEUS VULT.

But now, nearly three decades later, Divebomb Records is ecstatic to finally issue this double-CD set representing DEUS VULT circa 1989 - 1991. This includes the 13-song Group Effort sessions (1989), Heavy Artillery compilation track, Soul Assault EP, and the final recordings from Ultrasuede Studios for a total of 25 tracks and over two hours of highly underrated thrash excellence! Completely remastered by Jamie King Audio, the disc's booklet will be packed with assorted ephemera, as well as a lengthy retrospective interview with the band. For the fans, by the fans!

MARKETING POINTS:

ARTIST HOMETOWN: Cincinnati, Ohio

KEY MARKETS: Worldwide Metal Community

FOR FANS OF: CHASTAIN, ARMORED SAINT, PRISONER, LEATHERWOLF, OMEN

Legendary guitarist David T. Chastain formed CJSS during the mid-'80s, bringing with him two former members—Mike Skimmerhorn (bass) and Les Sharp (drums)—of his prior outfit, SPIKE, alongside charismatic vocalist Russell Jinkens (formerly of PRISONER). The intention was for Chastain to focus on writing and performing his own original material in a manner true to his artistic vision. Based solely on the popularity of both SPIKE and PRISONER, more than 1,000 fans attended the very first CJSS live performance at Bogart's in Cincinnati, OH; and by the summer of 1985 the group had already entered Counterpart Creative Studios to begin tracking their debut full-length with engineer Dale "Smitty" Smith.

Released in January of 1986 through Chastain's own Leviathan Records (with a European pressing through Black Dragon Records), the 37-minute World Gone Mad was packed with powerfully diverse, melodic heavy metal anthems and scorching leads aplenty—while lyrical themes encouraged listeners to hold strong in the face of the fear, anger, and depression of the world around them. A quick U.S. tour in support of the album followed, and the admirably productive musicians would find themselves right back in the studio mere months later!

Over 30 years after the fact, Divebomb Records is excited to present this expanded edition of World Gone Mad—for the first time ever on standalone CD! The core nine-song full-length has been bolstered by four rare demo tracks that never found their way onto a proper CJSS album. Fully remastered by Jamie King Audio, the set will be housed alongside a detailed booklet including a retrospective interview with David T. Chastain and Russell Jinkens. For the fans, by the fans!

MARKETING POINTS:

- Fully restored original cover art
- Original audio restored and remastered by Jamie King Audio
- Four bonus tracks
- Thick booklet with photos, lyrics and other classic memorabilia

Having just released their debut full-length, World Gone Mad, in January of 1986, mere months later CJSS returned to Counterpart Creative Studios with Dale "Smitty" Smith to record sophomore outing, Praise the Loud. Their second full-length album to see the light during 1986—once again via Chastain's Leviathan Records—the LP's 38 minutes represent an adventurous affair that finds the songwriting fine-tuned toward an even catchier brand of scorching, fist-raising heavy metal. More live shows ensued, but the initially productive run of CJSS would begin to ease up in the years that followed (though David T. Chastain himself would remain highly active with a number of other projects).

Over 30 years after the fact, Divebomb Records is excited to present this expanded edition of Praise the Loud—for the first time ever on standalone CD! ### INFORMATION:

ARTIST HOMETOWN: Las Vegas, Nevada

KEY MARKETS: Nevada, California

FOR FANS OF: LACK OF INTEREST, INFEST, NEANDERTHAL, EXTORTION, DRI

Las Vegas power trio LIFE'S TORMENT slap out twenty-six fastcore tracks on their freshman LP. The band summons the passion and speed of LACK OF INTEREST by with cleaner vocals. Something about the meridian that runs down that part of the country where you can draw a connection between their sound and HUMMINGBIRD OF DEATH, in fact both band's drummer shares a bulk of the vocal duties. If you like fast music you can skate to, LIFE'S TORMENT is the band for you. Think the aesthetic of SUICIDAL TENDANCIES mixed with the sound of Dirty Rotten era D.R.I.

MARKETING POINTS:

- Band for ten years
- Twenty-six fast tracks
- Limited edition of 500 copies
- All copies on mixed color vinyl

INFORMATION:

ARTIST HOMETOWN: Pittsfield, Massachusetts
KEY MARKETS: Boston, Texas, California, New York
FOR FANS OF: MAGRUDERGRIND, WVRM, INFEST, FLUORIDE, GOOLAGOON, ACXDC

Through punishingly short, and dynamic songs, ESCUELA GRIND delivers politically charged lyrics inspired by modern anxieties, unrest, and the roots of hardcore punk, h=grindcore, and power violence. While members Katerina Economou, Jesse Fuentes (KILL THE CLIENT, CREATOR|DESTRUCTOR), Jason Balthazar Eldridge (HEARSE), and Kris Morash (YOUR BRAIN ON DRUGS) span from different parts of the United States; the band has been based in Upstate New York and Western Massachusetts since its first shows in 2016.

"Following the forward-thinking path of bands like TERRORIZER, these Ithaca, New York based grinders offer variance to the tired blast-blast-blast trope, mixing in elements of death metal, doom, noise and more into their nitro cocktail. Featuring former members of KILL THE CLIENT, MONOLITH and more, ESCUELA GRIND are fronted by Katerina Economou, whose ferocious vocals provide an excellent guide into the group's depravity, one littered with hidden hooks, incredible riffs and brutality layered on brutality ..."

FOR FANS OF: INFEST, NAILS, MAGRUDERGRIND, WVRM, FLUORIDE, GOOLAGOON

ACXDC have been spreading their satanic grindcore mass since 2003. The early releases were collected on fifty-two tracks discography picture disc. The band then recorded a killer full length LP six years ago where they matured as a band. This LP collects everything after that - GOOLAGOON split, CHIENS split, DISPARO split, and the postcard flexi. The newest tracks still have ripneck speeds and alternating vocals but have a more matured sound to them and provided a bit more to sink your teeth into. With most of these releases only now available on Discogs, this new collection will let you find everything easily and not make you pay $666 for any one release.

"Powerviolence warriors" - NOISEY

"Antichrist Demoncore is a blasting, hardcore/punk, powerviolence fueled adrenaline rush of skull crushing greatness. 9/10" - METAL INJECTION

"The quintet can start, stop, and shift with the skills of Lack of Interest, bruise bodies and eardrums by way of Crossed Out breakdowns, and stealthily slip a knife under your guard a la Slap A Ham's finer satirists." - INVISIBLE ORANGES

MARKETING POINTS:

- LP collection of long sold out EPs
- Band has a large following
- Bonus remix on the b-side
