INFORMATION:

ARTIST HOMETOWN: Sacramento, CA

KEY MARKETS: Worldwide Metal Community

FOR FANS OF: MORDRED, HEATHEN, MORDRED, DEFIANCE, METALLICA

Formed in Sacramento, CA around 1987, DISSIDENT AGGRESSOR got its start when Lloyd Powers (guitar), Chris Brown (bass), and Darren Minter (drums) from HANS CRYPT joined forces with guitarist/vocalist Dale Roberts from XXX. The quartet parted ways with Brown and convinced former HANS CRYPT rhythm guitarist Dennis Lindner to join on bass before recording a rough garage demo on a Tascam 8-track. This led to shows in the Bay Area with HEATHEN, who took Minter for themselves, so Darren was replaced by Paul Lujan, thus solidifying the core lineup for which DISSIDENT AGGRESSOR is now known.

The reinvigorated unit practiced five hours a day to hone their brand of "progressive aggressive speed metal," and in early-1990 hit up Prairie Sun Recording Studios (EXODUS, FORBIDDEN, LAZ ROCKIT, MORDRED, POSSESSED, etc.) for three days to record a proper demo produced by TESLA's Frank Hannon and engineered by Steve Fontano and Marc Reyburn. Another excellent demo followed in 1992—once more produced by Hannon—firmly rooted in crisp and crunchy, go-for-the-throat thrash with lyrical topics that tended toward socially conscious messages and meaning.

Having performed live alongside acts like PANTERA, ARMORED SAINT, DEATH ANGEL, FORBIDDEN, and even T.S.O.L., DISSIDENT AGGRESSOR gained interest from Chrysalis Records and Warner Bros.—amongst others—and seemed poised for a sure-fire recording contract. Perhaps the result of over-ambitious management, somehow a deal was never secured, and the band called it quits in 1993 when juggling family, full-time jobs, and music became too much to handle.

But now, more than 25 years later, Divebomb Records is excited to finally present Death Beyond Darkness: a proper 16-song discography CD for the sorely overlooked and underrated Sacramento thrashers DISSIDENT AGGRESSOR! Completely remastered by Jamie King Audio, the disc will as always be packaged alongside a detailed booklet including a retrospective interview with the band. For the fans, by the fans!

CHASTAIN

For Those Who Dare (Anniversary Edition), CD

STREET DATE: AUGUST 14, 2020

INFORMATION:

ARTIST HOMETOWN: USA

KEY MARKETS: Worldwide Metal Community

FOR FANS OF: DIO, WARLOCK, YNGWIE MALMSTEEN, CJSS AND LEATHER

David T. Chastain has gained a reputation over the last 35+ years as a powerful, progressive guitarist whose music has been centered around his melodic and technically fluent fretboard mastery. Besides David's virtuoso style, the other major attribute to CHASTAIN'S instantly distinct sound is vocalist Leather Leone's superior and ultimately commanding presence.

Originally released in 1990 on Roadrunner Records, CHASTAIN'S fifth album, For Those Who Dare, was yet further proof that David T. Chastain was not just a great player, but also a talented songwriter and band leader with an exceptional group of collaborators to help make his visions a reality. That being said, the album had been remixed by the label without the group's involvement, resulting in an overly dry, unpolished sound. To date, the original band-approved mix has never been granted an official CD release.

That all changes now, as Divebomb Records is excited to present the 30th Anniversary edition of For Those Who Dare, adhering to original intent by restoring Steve Fontano's (Prairie Sun Studios) more balanced mix—as well as additional background vocals, ad libs, and "ear candy" that have long been missing from the Roadrunner release. As usual, the disc has also been remastered by Jamie King Audio, and will be packaged alongside a detailed booklet—revised and expanded from Divebomb's initial 2010 reissue to include additional photographs and a retrospective interview with David T. Chastain and Leather Leone. For the fans, by the fans!

MARKETING POINTS:

- 30th anniversary edition
- Contains original, unreleased Steve Fontano (Prairie Sun Recording Studios) album mix
- Different album running order than original Roadrunner Records edition
- New cover art using photo from original session
- Digitally remastered by Jamie King Audio
- Includes two rare unreleased demos
- Remastered from band archives for best possible sound
- Thick booklet with photos, interview and other classic memorabilia
- Limited Edition CD

INFORMATION:

ARTIST HOMETOWN: Tampa, FL

KEY MARKETS: Worldwide Metal Community

FOR FANS OF: CYNIC, ATHEIST, DEATH & PESTILENCE

The criminally short-lived and underrated EPITAPH began taking shape in Tampa, FL circa 1990, when drummer Kevin Astl and guitarist/vocalist Tony Teegarden eventually hooked up with Wayne Burgess (guitar) and Mark Good (bass). The quartet specifically set out to craft an intelligent and technical form of death metal that was brutal yet digestible, and by 1991 found themselves recording a three-song demo with Tom Morris at the legendary Morrisound Recording—complete with backing vocals from OBITUARY'S John Tardy. Burgess was replaced by Scott Senokosoff on guitar, and an equally excellent two-song 1992 demo was once more tracked at Morrisound, this time with the mighty Scott Burns.

Having performed live alongside ATHEIST, RESURRECTION, and even a slot opening for PANTERA, the band's mind-bending output (crucially perfect for fans of demo-era CYNIC) finally caught the attention of Massacre Records—with whom they nearly secured a deal—but, sadly, negotiations gradually fell apart. While EPITAPH absolutely should have gone on to become heralded alongside renowned Florida greats such as CYNIC and ATHEIST, the group instead found itself unofficially "done" before the end of 1992, at which time Teegarden auditioned for CYNIC and would go on to contribute to their groundbreaking masterpiece, Focus.

At long last, nearly 30 years later, Divebomb Records is thrilled to finally grant EPITAPH'S superb five-song discography a proper CD release with Echos Entombed: The Demo Anthology (1991-1992). The release will also present three ripping bonus tracks fully remixed by Mark Lewis—who members of EPITAPH became familiar with through his early work at Audiohammer in Florida—at MRL Studios outside Nashville. Remastered by Jamie King Audio, the disc's booklet will be packed with lyrics, archival photographs, and a retrospective interview with the entirety of the band's "classic" lineup. For the fans, by the fans!

MARKETING POINTS:

- Contains 3 brand new mixes by Mark Lewis (MEGADETH, TRIVIUM, THE BLACK DAHLIA MURDER, etc)
- Cover art by cult horror artist, The Gurch
- Original demo audio restored and remastered by Jamie King Audio
- Recorded at legendary Morrisound Studios
- Remastered from band archives for best possible sound
- Thick booklet with photos, interview and other classic memorabilia
- Limited Edition "Bootcamp Series" CD (#47)

Mr. T Experience, And the Women Who Love Them was originally released during a time when the band was on the brink--in a way it was a last hurrah for the MR. T EXPERIENCE before going their separate ways. But the result was the opposite. The EP breathed new life into what was known as the MTX Starship-- this EP was the spark that lit a fire under frontman Dr. Frank, who decided to drop everything and take a risk on rock and roll. The result was a funny and witty record that charmed the pants off old and new fans alike--laying the groundwork for some of the band's most popular releases just a few years later. This record is the first in a complete series of reissues by the MR. T EXPERIENCE--carefully remastered for the best sound possible.
