Having written Ikigai over the course of the last couple of years and finishing this record during a pandemic, the band brings out pain, grief, desperation, and perseverance in every note, every chord, and every word. ARTIST HOMETOWN: Gainesville, FL

KEY MARKETS: Gainesville, Fest FL, NJ, Philly, Chicago, UK, Germany

FOR FANS OF: MEMBERS OF HOT WATER MUSIC, FOR FANS OF WIPERS, NAKED RAYGUN, LEATHERFACE

The latest and 4th LP from this band; earlier records were CHRIS WOLLARD & THE SHIP THIEVES, THE SHIP THIEVES, and the first on a label other than their hometown's No Idea. As part of the BOUNCING SOULS/HOT WATER MUSIC family and diaspora, Chunksaah seemed an obvious fit. A SHIP THIEVES track appeared on a limited Chunksaah 10" celebrating Fest FL, also in their hometown. A great recording given the gift of time; having months of mixing and mastering and pondering this past strange year for music. Stay home and listen to records, including this one!

MARKETING POINTS:

- Limited edition colored vinyl, first pressing includes separate colors for retail and artist versions
- Limited-edition "covid" pressing... all Chunksaah pressings during the pandemic have a "stay Home and Listen To Records" marketing sticker and are on splattered colored vinyl.
- Artwork by Richard Minino
- Recorded in Gainesville over a period of years, honing each song with their friend and longtime conspirator Ryan Williams, in the studio (Black Bear) they write and practice in.

FOR FANS OF: MAN IS THE BASTARD, MERZBOW, PRURIENT

Two noise powerhouses come full force into symbiosis on one ferocious and undefinable plate of wax. AMPS FOR CHRIST bring the aural equivalent Jodorowsky film to life – both beautiful and confusing. Laid forth are strange landscapes, some of other worlds and some of birds chirping just like in your backyard. Lots of Barnes masterfully riffing on odd stringed instruments, god-like chanting, and Wood even provides bass and noise on tracks to drench this strange world with a film of grit. The AMPS FOR CHRIST side is like walking through a strange world, and the BASTARD NOISE is a descent through purgatory down into hell. Drone noise drenched with austere bleakness that it is hard to imagine the world you heard on the other side. Wood is also joined by multi-instrumentalist W.T. Nelson and Katsura Mouri. This is truly a split that challenges norms and with the lack of normal structure and expectations this album lets you lose yourself and allows you to fully dive into your subconscious.

MARKETING POINTS:

- A long-playing split between two important noise artists
- Wood plays on both sides
- W.T. Nelson and Katsura Mouri play extra noise on the tracks. Katsura plays haunting melodies on the metal strikes
- Iconic Man Is The Bastard/Bastard Noise imagery
- Quality pressing via Furnace Record Pressing

GASP

Stardonas, 7"

Street Date: March 12, 2021

ARTIST HOMETOWN: Los Angeles, CA

KEY MARKETS: California, Texas

FOR FANS OF: DYSTOPIA

All good things take time. GASP in this case have taken sixteen years to emerges from the chrysalis and are back with three intense psychedelic powerviolence/hardcore/grindcore mayhem of what you might call songs but are more dirges you don't want to end. Those unfamiliar with the band, they conquered the west coast in the 90's and did splits with some choice bands like NOOTHGRUSH, SUFFERING LUNA, VOLUME 11, and DEERHOOF. The sound is completely unpredictable, like a ride through Alice in Wonderland but if you were on a really bad trip. Maybe more of a Willy Wonka boat ride where you weave in the beautify scenery before and after but are absolutely terrified for the trip in between. This is not a record to miss out on, first pressing limited to 500 copies.

MARKETING POINTS:

- First new recording in sixteen years
- Full color artwork, intense packaging
- One of a kind sound
