PROJECT ROENWOLFE

Edge Of Saturn, CD

Street Date: June 11, 2021

ARTIST HOMETOWN: Pennsylvania & Georgia, USA

KEY MARKETS: Worldwide Metal Community

FOR FANS OF: NEVERMORE, FORBIDDEN, CONTROL DENIED, TOXIK, REALM AND ARTILLERY

An all-too-long seven years down the line from their promising debut, PROJECT: ROENWOLFE is back and better than ever, announcing the forthcoming release of long-overdue sophomore outing, Edge of Saturn. Co-founders Patrick Parris (vocals) and Tony Cordisco (guitar, bass) are joined by drummer Ernie Topran (THEOCRACY, ex-HALCYON WAY) to strengthen the manifestation of their vision for crunchy-yet-melodic thrash metal with epically soaring vocals—perfectly suited for fans of NEVERMORE, FORBIDDEN, CONTROL DENIED and ARTILLERY.

Edge of Saturn—a nine-song, 50-minute affair—is a skillfully diverse effort that never favors variety or complexity over the sheer power of memorable, high-energy songwriting. Lyrically, the album explores both the personal and the political, often through the creative lens of science fiction—be the concepts originally penned or inspired by literary legends such as Lovecraft, Shelley, Simmons, and Sapkowski. The title track, in fact, is a direct continuation of Neverwhere Dreamscape's “Split the Rings of Saturn” storyline, with the intention of expanding the saga across future recordings.

Divebomb Records is thrilled to once again partner with PROJECT: ROENWOLFE for the 2021 release of Edge of Saturn. The album's markedly improved production and laser-focused songwriting boasts a level of quality and professionalism that raises PROJECT: ROENWOLFE toward the plane of the very luminaries that have inspired them—sure to stun former fans and newcomers alike!

CANVAS SOLARIS

Chromosphere, CD

Street Date: June 11, 2021

ARTIST HOMETOWN: Georgia, USA

KEY MARKETS: Worldwide Metal Community

FOR FANS OF: WATCHTOWER, ANIMALS AS LEADERS, CORONER, MEKONG DELTA, LIQUID TENSION EXPERIMENT & BLOTTED SCIENCE

Following the release of their fifth album, Irradiance, instrumental progressive metal songsmiths CANVAS SOLARIS quietly disbanded in 2010. The quartet regrouped in 2014 and began forming compositions that would eventually make up album #6, but various personal roadblocks stalled momentum for more than a year. Activities finally resumed in 2016, and the band completed writing six songs/50 minutes of new material: Chromosphere. However, due to a combination of logistics, personal obligations, and time constraints, the group took its time to record and mix the tracks at various studios over the course of the three years that followed.

Speaking to Chromosphere's direction, drummer Hunter Ginn states, "When we started down the path of making a new album, Nathan and I knew that we wanted to apply more focus to the songwriting, so we turned to inspiration from late-'80s/early-'90s progressive and technical thrash bands like TOXIK, REALM, WATCHTOWER, MEKONG DELTA, TARGET, CORONER, DEATHROW, ANACRUSIS, BELIEVER, OBLIVEON, and SADUS to provide us with a deep reservoir of ideas. Chromosphere doesn't exactly come across as sounding like those bands, but I would like to think that at least CANVAS SOLARIS shares with them some DNA."

With Chromosphere, CANVAS SOLARIS has very much succeeded in delivering intricate, high-level progressive metal boasting a finely crafted approach to songwriting that emphasizes movement and atmosphere over endless displays of technical musicianship. Hunter closes with, "I don't think this is the record that anyone expected us to make. After a 10-year absence, most listeners probably would have bet on a mellower, more cosmic CANVAS SOLARIS album. While Chromosphere has no shortage of cosmic moments, we have never made a more aggressive, determined-sounding album..."

RADIO DAYS

RAVE ON!, CD

Street Date: June 11, 2021

ARTIST HOMETOWN: Milan, Italy

KEY MARKETS: EUROPE. JAPAN

FOR FANS OF: NERVES, PAUL COLLINS BEAT, THE JAGS, ELVIS COSTELLO, BIG STAR

RADIO DAYS, Rave On!, is high energy power pop that will make you get down and groove—or maybe get up and move! For those in the know, RADIO DAYS have spent the better part of the last decade refining their sound with international releases in Europe, Japan, and North America, all to stellar reviews. Rave On! marks the beginning of band's attack on the American market, and so far the results have been impressive. The band has won the praise of Steve Van Zandt (Bruce Springsteen and the E-Street Band) and has been twice named "Best band in the world" on Little Steven's Underground Garage. RADIO DAYS offers an exciting mix of what has been described as "early Elvis Costello, the Rubinoos' vocal harmonies, Big Stars' stretching determination and the Knacks' easy listening melodies." This album absolutely cooks—and Sounds Rad is proud to introduce RADIO DAYS as the first in a whole new wave of international power pop.
