BARKHARD

Shut Up and Skate - Millennium Edition, LP

Street Date: MAY 6, 2022

ARTIST HOMETOWN: Houston, TX

KEY MARKETS: Chicago, Los Angeles, SF, New York, Texas

FOR FANS OF: J.F.A., THE FACTION, M.D.C., D.R.I.,
THE BIG BOYS, BONELESS ONES, OFFENDERS

“One day our friends said lets start a fucking band. Next thing you know were doing this shit! We sat around like every fuckin other kid. Just pull of fuckin piss and vinegar. Excited about just the fuckin grinding trucks and the fuckin barking sound of board slides. And we started this band Bark Hard!” - Todd Prince

BEER CITY SKATEBOARDS AND RECORDS out does themselves again with another hard hitting early 80's hardcore/punk/skate rock classic from the genius and insanity of legendary pro skaters John 'Tex' Gibson and Todd Prince. We bring you the restored and remastered Millennium reissue of BARKHARD - Shut Up and Skate Millennium Edition LP!

Back in 1984 when this originally came out it was very hard to find cause not to many copies were made. For years it was hard to get and at collectors prices. Thats all changed now cause here it is . Fully restored and remastered to sound louder and better . It contains 13 songs of early 80's hardcore/punk with some crossover. This music is just like these guys skating , fast , relentless , hard and of coarse fun! Everything you would expect from a hardcore/punk band in this time period . Along with a unique skateboarder perspective. Songs about beer , skating , life and of coarse Reagan! Then throw in some original evil cover art by Erik Brunett and you have more then you may be able to handle.

It doesn't stop there. Cause not only do you get the original insert / lyric sheet art. This also comes with a huge 24" x 18" color poster filled with old skate photos (many never before seen) from that era and pictures of the band. As well as a brand new interview with John 'Tex' Gibson and Todd Prince. They tell you the history of the band all the way from the beginning to right now. Defiantly something worthy of your wall space and hard earned money!

So don't drag your feet. Pick up this album. Blast it and then go skate.

Don't Mess with Texas... HARDCORE!

MARKETING POINTS:

- A classic hard to find early 80's hardcore/punk LP
- Advertising campaign in print and online
- Original cover art by Erik Brunett
- Restored and remastered

We Must Rebel - Millennium Edition, LP

Street Date: MAY 6, 2022

ARTIST HOMETOWN: Austin, TX
KEY MARKETS: Chicago, Los Angeles, SF, New York, Texas
FOR FANS OF: M.D.C., D.R.I., VERBAL ABUSE, THE BIG BOYS

"Not Since 1981 has there ever been nor will there ever be a band like the OFFENDERS." - X Con Ron - M.D.C.

BEER CITY SKATEBOARDS AND RECORDS is proud to bring you another hard hitting early 80's hardcore/punk classic from back in the day. We bring you the restored and remastered Millennium reissue of the original mix of OFFENDERS - We Must Rebel Millennium Edition LP!

Back in the early 80's Texas was churning out a fair share of bands that would go on to become legends in the hardcore/punk scene and beyond. The OFFENDERS were no exception to this phenomenon. Anytime they played you knew as soon as they hit the stage they meant business and you were in for an intense experience like no other. This hardcore/punk scorcher originally came out in 1983. It was produced/recorded by the Butthole Surfers very own Paul Leary. Its very fast, furious and intense. It contains 10 songs that would soon become classics that blew people right out of the water and had them waiting in anticipation for the next release. By what would become this legendary hardcore/punk band. Fast forward to 2022. Not only did we restore and remaster this, but we also used the original mix and put it out on 45RPM so its louder and sounds better then it ever has before.

Of course we didn't stop there. The cover is a bit different to and printed as the band originally intended it to be. You'll get to hear all about that and more in the extensive liner notes by none other then OFFENDERS drummer Pat Doyle. He tells you all about this and much more.

So if you want to own a part of hardcore/punk history thats just as ass kicking and as relevant as it was when it first came out. Pick up this release and never forget 'Don't Mess with Texas... HARDCORE!'

MARKETING POINTS:

- Contains the original long out of print mix
- Restored and remastered
- Recorded by Paul Leary of the BUTTHOLE SURFERS
- Includes extensive liner notes by OFFENDERS drummer Pat Doyle
- Advertising campaign in print and online

Endless Struggle - Millennium Edition, LP

Street Date: MAY 6, 2022

ARTIST HOMETOWN: Austin, TX
KEY MARKETS: Chicago, Los Angeles, SF, New York, Texas
FOR FANS OF: M.D.C., D.R.I., VERBAL ABUSE, THE BIG BOYS

"Not Since 1981 has there ever been nor will there ever be a band like the OFFENDERS." - X Con Ron - M.D.C.

BEER CITY SKATEBOARDS AND RECORDS is proud to bring you the second and final album from 80's hardcore/punk legends; the OFFENDERS - Endless Struggle Millennium Edition LP! Completely restored and remastered and all from the original reel tapes. Featuring the original mix that's been out of print for a very long time.

Back in the early 80's Texas was churning out a fair share of bands that would go on to become legends in the hardcore/punk scene and beyond. The OFFENDERS were no exception to this phenomenon. Anytime they played you knew as soon as they hit the stage they meant business and you were in for an intense experience like no other. The OFFENDERS had already established themselves as a no BS hardcore/punk band with their first release 'We Must Rebel'. They played a ton of shows and toured on it a bunch to. A few years past while all this happened and in those years they wrote some more ass kicking songs that would end up being their second and final release 'Endless Struggle'.

This hardcore/punk scorcher had the same rage and urgency as the first album, but the progression of the band could be heard and defiantly appreciated. This originally came out in 1985 and was produced by the legendary Spot. It contains 13 ragging songs that you will not forget. Top all that off with extensive liner notes by none other than OFFENDERS drummer Pat Doyle and you have a hard hitting restored and remastered LP that will have you playing it again and again.

So if you want to own a part of hardcore/punk history that's just as ass kicking and as relevant as it was when it first came out. Pick up this release and never forget 'Don't Mess with Texas... HARDCORE!'

MARKETING POINTS:

- Contains the original long out of print mix
- Restored and remastered from the original reel tapes

Multi Death Chicken Stains 12" - Millennium Edition, LP

Street Date: MAY 6, 2022

ARTIST HOMETOWN: Austin, TX
KEY MARKETS: Chicago, Los Angeles, SF, New York, Texas
FOR FANS OF: D.R.I., VERBAL ABUSE, THE BIG BOYS, OFFENDERS , REAGAN YOUTH , WASTED YOUTH

BEER CITY SKATEBOARDS AND RECORDS is proud to bring you M.D.C. -
Multi Death Chicken Stains 12" - Millennium Edition LP!

After their debut album in 1982 M.D.C. quickly became a huge name in hardcore/punk. M.D.C. was far from their work being done. With the world going to hell and nuclear war on the verge of happening. You had a bunch of angst , anger and frustration that M.D.C. managed to funnel into even after more intense songs that would end up being their second and third 7"s.

Finally after all these years all the songs from their legendary early 80's 7"s (Multi Death Corporation, Millions of Dead Children AKA Chicken Squawk , The Stains - John Wayne) are assembled on one 12" . Completely restored and remastered. Along with bonus tracks that were recorded during the original sessions , but couldn't fit on the 7"s. All on 12inch so the grooves are farther apart and deeper and at 45RPM so they are now louder, sound better and more impacting then ever before.

Things don't stop there folks. The Multi Death Corporation 7" and Millions of Dead Children AKA Chicken Squawk 7" each came with impressive packaging each complete with a fold out poster that contained not only lyrics, but some very important info to. So we decided to include those with this record. So its almost like getting the 7"s , but with better sound and no collector prices.

It just keeps getting better cause M.D.C. founders Dave Dictor and X Con Ron each wrote brand new liner notes for this release as well.

So if you want to own a part of hardcore/punk history thats just as ass kicking and as relevant as it was when it first came out. Pick up this release and never forget 'Don't Mess with Texas... HARDCORE!'

MARKETING POINTS:

- Contains all the songs from three 7"s as well as bonus tracks
- Restored and remastered
- Includes the original packaging/ fold out posters for two of the 7"s
- Includes extensive liner notes by Dave Dictor and X Con Ron
- Advertising campaign in print and online

THE FLASH HITS

Growths, LP

Street Date: MAY 6, 2022

ARTIST HOMETOWN:

Philadelphia, Los Angeles

KEY MARKETS:

Seattle, Portland, LA, Philadelphia, San Francisco, Chicago, Mpls, Boston

FOR FANS OF:

LILYS, MORGAN DELT, BRIAN JONESTOWN MASSACRE, SLOW DIVE, DREAM SYNDICATE, BEACH BOYS

FRONTIER RECORDS was so impressed by the FLASH HITS' self-released debut, Recognitions, that they offered to release the bands' brand new LP Growths. Born of a love for colorful guitars, hypno-groovy bass, fascinating rhythms, found sounds and sweet-dream sidewalk talk, FLASH HITS row merrily through streams of post-punk, art rock, and micro-psychedelia, weaving a backdrop to deliver their neorealistic Oulipo-laced narratives.

THE FLASH HITS began as a four-track tape project in 2012 in Philadelphia by Damien C. Taylor (THE SOUNDS OF KALEIDOSCOPE, MACITAJ'S ON ACID (LV), KOHOUTEK, ASTEROID #4, etc.) and Mike Hammel (LILYS, ROPER'S, PINK SKULL, FALSE TRACKS)

Taylor's relocation to Los Angeles in 2013 saw the addition of Gena Tusso on drums as well as a mini tour of the East Coast in September. With David Petersen (ADAM & DAVE'S BLOODLINE) joining Taylor, Hammel and Tusso for the shows and contributions from Mickey Walker (LILYS, THE SOUNDS OF KALEIDOSCOPE, HI-SOFT) – the result was The Bloodline Tape. In 2016, Taylor emerged with a fresh batch of tunes and a new, new lineup with Tim Plunkett (SOUNDS OF KALEIDOSCOPE, GONDOLA, HI-SOFT) on drums and toured with DEAD MEADOW that spring.

Taylor returned to Philadelphia briefly in 2018 to meet Plunkett and Gerhardt Koerner (LILYS, HI-SOFT, THE SOUNDS OF KALEIDOSCOPE) to record its album debut, Recognitions. The project saw the return of Hammel and Blumling, both contributing heavily along with Wilfong, Walker and Scott Verrastro (KOHOUTEK, BARDO POND, etc). When Taylor returned to LA, the band self-released this debut LP Recognitions, in a now sold-out, limited run of 500.

With the core lineup set at Taylor, Plunkett and Blumling, more shows ensued and new songs appeared. They set up in Ultra Sound Studio in Downtown LA on Leap Day 2020 with Jason Simon as producer to record Growths. The album finds THE FLASH HITS once again returning with a collection of sonic souvenirs from their Montessori-style explorations and adventures deeply removed from consensus-trance rock.

FOR FANS OF: WIRE, TY SEGALL, THEE OH SEES, THE FALL

FLAT WORMS Live In Los Angeles sounds like a great night out in a world you may not be quite ready to live in again. But if you still have your AV setup from prepandemic days, then you have the possibility of the FLAT WORMS Live In Los Angeles playing in your own home - a formidable vision, but now an eminently possible one.

FLAT WORMS formed in Los Angeles in 2015. From their early days playing together (Will Ivy guitar/vocals, Tim Hellman bass/vocals (THEE OH SEES), Justin Sullivan drums) they found a compatibility and sense of purpose that has guided them through several singles, an EP and two full-length LPs on God/Drag City, each of which had found a growing number of people who want to hear the band. With most of their recordings made in TY SEGALL's home studio, the contrast between the band's native emphasis on immediacy and the adventuresome signal paths and possibilities that mark TY's productions has given extra texture to Will's psyched-out guitar leads and the muscular flex of Tim and Justin's rhythm playing. With Antarctica and "The Guest" 7", FLAT WORMS' sound tilted further toward its virtual intent with STEVE ALBINI engineering at his Electrical Audio facility.

Recorded live at Zebulon around the time of Into the Iris, Live In Los Angeles takes this tack even further, trading the wiggly sonic swamp of their studio-recorded sounds for the more open physicality that becomes apparent in a live setting, as the audience's presence goads the band and the band similarly pushes the audience. Live In Los Angeles is an overwhelming expression of FLAT WORMS' democratic goals, with the three members thrusting forward together with the audience in a space infused with shared energy. This allows the dark humors in their songs to shine more brightly, and their intentions as a social band, to entertain and to move bodies, become clear over the course of eight uncompromising performances.

This is FLAT WORMS' first release for Frontier Records, whose seminal punk releases have always been an influence for the band. On Live In Los Angeles, the West Coast post-punk sound blooms eternal, outside of time, speaking as urgently to today as it always has. Live In Los Angeles brings the vibe, slamming us back into the club every time we drop the needle - until we're able to meet again in such essential open encounters.
