THEE FINAL CHAPTRE

So Let It Be Done, CD

Street Date: June 10, 2022

Artist Hometown:

Texas/Louisiana

Key Markets:

Worldwide Metal Community,
White Metal/Christian Metal Community

For Fans of:

CRIMSON GLORY, QUEENSRYCHE,
SACRED WARRIOR, HITTMAN, RECON

Inspired by the success of Divebomb Records' 25th anniversary reissue of It Is Written back in 2016, all four original members of THEE FINAL CHAPTRE—drummer David Osbourn, guitarist Gary Michael Wilson, bassist Paul Starnes, and vocalist Tripp Andrews—felt moved to reunite and determine the outcome of creating new music together. Over four years later—and a whopping three decades since their debut—the results are in...

Produced and engineered by Osbourn at SoundBourn Studio in Midlothian, TX, the hour-long So Let It Be Done contains 12 astoundingly powerful cuts that effortlessly capture the vibe of THEE FINAL CHAPTRE's original roots; given a heavier, more modern sound focused on a breadth of songwriting versatility. Speaking to the album's drawn-out creative process, Osbourn states, "All of us live in different cities and states now, so logistics proved to be quite a challenge. Add to that a global pandemic and a multitude of scheduling conflicts, and four years later you have a finished album."

The group's contemplative message also remains intact: "While we recognize that none of us are perfect—quite flawed, actually—we are still men of faith. We wanted to put something out to give the world hope. Hope can be a very powerful thing when you're surrounded by darkness..."

Slated for release in March of 2022, Divebomb Records is excited to once again partner with THEE FINAL CHAPTRE for the CD release of So Let It Be Done. Perfect for fans of CRIMSON GLORY, SACRED WARRIOR, QUEENSRYCHE, HITTMAN, etc.; the material will prove without a doubt that time cannot diminish this quartet's fire for thoughtful, progressive power metal.

MARKETING POINTS:

- First album in 30 years
- Follow-up to his critically acclaimed It Was Written 30th anniversary reissue solo
- All songs written during band's initial activity and recorded before and throughout the pandemic. Songs keeping true to original band's visions and sounds.
- CD mastered by Jamie King of Jamie King Audio
- Strong following within the Christian Metal/White Metal community, but lyrics will appeal to all metal heads. Broad subject matter and not limiting.

SYMPHONY X, DREAM THEATER,
PAIN OF SALVATION & FATES WARNING

OCTOBER THORNS formed in Brooklyn, NY in 1999. Through a series of auditions, the band settled into a lineup of drummer Joe "Jofu" Cardillo, guitarists Joe Chawki and Dave Pando, Norbert Sator on keyboards, Dave Z on bass, and vocalist Paul LaPlaca. Pando—also head of Catalyst Promotions—was immediately relentless in setting up gigs for the group, including festival appearances such as Milwaukee Metalfest, Powermad, and The Big Bang. A performance at the 1999 Savatage Convention (a.k.a. Savacon '99) even led to Dave Z being asked to join the TRANS-SIBERIAN ORCHESTRA. OCTOBER THORNS eventually became a fixture at L'Amour—the self-proclaimed "Rock Capital of Brooklyn"—opening for acts such as SYMPHONY X, IN FLAMES, and GOD FORBID.

By the time the band had completed a six-song demo, they were being covered by international magazines such as Aardschok, Heavy, Oder Was!?, and Transcending the Mundane; while garnering interest from labels like Century Media and Inside Out. Unfortunately, intra-band tensions were already causing instabilities within the lineup, and the members' working relationships proved too damaged to carry on.

Two decades and several false starts later, Divebomb Records is excited to finally reissue Circle Game: the complete discography of OCTOBER THORNS. The band's original six-song demo has been completely remixed by Alex Argento from Italian prog metallers Icefish, and is bolstered by an additional six previously unreleased rarities, totaling over an hour's worth of memorably adventurous progressive metal. As always, the disc will be housed alongside a 20-page CD booklet fully-loaded with photos, lyrics, and an all-new interview with Paul LaPlaca. For the fans, by the fans!

MARKETING POINTS:

- Contains original multi-track session remix and restoration by Alex Argento (Icefish, etc)
- Features ex-members of Trans-Siberian Orchestra, Z02, Adrenaline Mob, THOR, Carnivore AD, etc
- Cover art by Steven Cobb
- Includes 4 never-before-heard demo tracks from band's vault
- Thick booklet with photos, interview and other classic memorabilia
- Released in memory of David Z (bass) who was tragically killed in 2017

SYMPHONY X, DREAM THEATER,
PAIN OF SALVATION & FATES WARNING

BROTHERS GRIMM formed in Cincinnati, OH during the late-'80s, when all of the members were still teenagers. Settling on an initial lineup of Jake Bolduc (bass), Christian Green (drums), guitarists Rob Gannon and Dennis Hamlin, and Bruce Arnold on vocals, the extremely dedicated crew honed an astoundingly high-level form of progressive metal throughout frequent late-night practice sessions—inspired by legends such as CACOPHONY, DREAM THEATER, FATES WARNING, RACER X, AND WATCHTOWER, to name a few.

Tracked with Dale “Smitty” Smith—who had done quite a bit of work with David T. Chastain’s assorted projects—at Queen City Music, debut outing Helm's Deep was released on cassette in 1990, and its creative songwriting and adept musicianship established BROTHERS GRIMM as both ahead of their time and technically on par with now-classics of that era. Few live shows followed, however, and rather than pursue support from a record label, several members of the group relocated to Hollywood to attend the Musicians Institute as the writing for follow-up Only Change Is Constant started to take shape.

Recorded as a four-piece sans Gannon and with Aaron Thomas from DEUS VULT on vocals, Only Change Is Constant began at Audio Craft Studio when the remaining musicians returned from Los Angeles. Short on finances, the band chipped in for an ADAT machine and finished the EP at whomever’s home would tolerate the noise. The material would eventually be released in 1992, once again in limited numbers on cassette. Though BROTHERS GRIMM had already started to work on some promising new songs, continuing financial struggles combined with general growing pains resulted in the lineup going their separate ways shortly thereafter.

But now, a whopping three decades later, Divebomb Records is thrilled to compile the complete BROTHERS GRIMM discography onto CD for the very first time. The disc will contain all nine should-be cult classic tracks from both Helm's Deep and Only Change Is Constant, plus three bonus instrument-only takes from the Only Change Is Constant sessions—all remastered by Jamie King Audio. Plus, a 20-page CD booklet fully-loaded with photos, lyrics, and a retrospective interview with the band. For the fans, by the fans!

MARKETING POINTS:

- First time on CD
- Audio sourced from band’s DAT archives
- Digitally remastered and restored by Jamie King at Jamie King Audio
- Engineered by Dale “Smitty” Smith (Chastain, Deus Vult, etc)
- Contains rare Only Change Is Constant demo
- Vocalist Aaron Thomas (DEUS VULT) featured on OCIC demo
- Thick booklet with photos, interview and other classic memorabilia

For Fans of:

WARGASM, GOTHIC SLAM, MOTORHEAD,
HALLOWS EVE, CARNIVORE

PRIMAL SCREAM (NYC) formed in Brooklyn, NY circa 1986 when ex-CARNIVORE guitarist Keith Alexander set out to create a project that he could call his own, joining forces with Steve Alliano (formerly of DEATHSLAYER/HELICON) on lead vocals and drums, and Rob Graham on bass. Shortly thereafter, the trio entered Systems Two Studios (CARNIVORE, AGNOSTIC FRONT, CRUMBSUCKERS, WHIPLASH) to record a three-song demo, The Outrage Continues. Within just nine months of existence, PRIMAL SCREAM (NYC) landed a deal with Mercenary Records and quickly returned to Systems Two in January of 1987 for their full-length debut, Volume One.

Keith had inventively labeled the group's style as "throk"—thrash + rock—which made perfect sense for PRIMAL SCREAM (NYC)'s unique brand of energetic and aggressive crossover; which led to performances alongside top-shelf acts such as MANOWAR, KING DIAMOND, OVERKILL, CRO-MAGS, M.O.D., WHIPLASH, NUCLEAR ASSAULT, etc. An entire second LP—Superstructure—was even written and rehearsed, with plans to hit the studio before the end of 1988. Unfortunately, a lack of promotion/support from the label—coupled with a revolving door of lineup changes that eventually found Keith the only founding member remaining—saw the promising outfit fade into relative obscurity with Volume One their swansong.

Original copies of the Volume One CD have since become quite collectible, at times selling for $100 or more. So, at long last, over three decades later, Divebomb Records is proud to honor the memory of Keith Alexander—who passed away in a tragic bicycle accident in 2005—with a long-overdue official deluxe edition reissue of PRIMAL SCREAM (NYC), Volume One. Fully remastered by Jamie King Audio, the disc's booklet will contain archival photographs and a retrospective interview with Steve Alliano; as well as a look back with Keith's sister, Kari. For the fans, by the fans!

MARKETING POINTS:

- Features ex-CARNIVORE guitarist Keith Alexander
- Brand new mastering by Jamie King Audio
- Out of print for decades, original CD highly collectible
- Contains 3 bonus tracks
- Thick booklet with full lyrics, new interviews and other classic memorabilia
- Limited Edition CD

APOCRYPHA

Area 54, CD

Street Date: June 10, 2022

Artist Hometown:

Las Vegas, NV

Key Markets:

Worldwide Metal Community

For Fans of:

REVEREND, VICIOUS RUMORS, HELSTAR, CACOPHONY

With new rhythm section Breck Smith (bass) and Dave Schiller (drums) having been enlisted to tour in support of 1988's The Eyes of Time, Las Vegas outfit APOCRYPHA—completed by guitarists Tony Fredianelli and Chip Chrovian with vocalist Steve Plocica—eventually regrouped to work on what would become the quintet's final album for Shrapnel Records: Area 54.

Helmed by Fredianelli alongside co-producers Mike Varney and Steve Fontano at Prairie Sun Recording Studios, Area 54 is arguably APOCRYPHA's finest outing—taking the band's foundation of technical and progressive metal into a noticeably darker and more thrash-centric direction. Similarly, the artwork and lyrics were inspired by ominous socio-political topics, well-suited against the album's intensified musical landscape.

Out-of-print for years but forever deserving of appreciation, Divebomb Records is proud to offer this officially licensed reissue of Area 54. Freshly remastered by Jamie King Audio, the CD—limited to just 1,000 copies—will come housed alongside an all-new 16-page booklet featuring band-supplied photos and tour memories; plus an interview with both Fredianelli and Schiller, looking back on the Area 54 era. For the fans, by the fans!

HOWE II

High Gear, CD

Street Date: June 10, 2022

Artist Hometown: USA

Key Markets: Worldwide Metal Community

For Fans of: VAN HALEN, BULLET BOYS, RATT, EXTREME, WHITE LION, GREG HOWE

When groundbreaking guitarist Greg Howe inked a deal with Shrapnel Records during the late-'80s, the terms included two full-band vocal albums by the group Greg had been working on with his brother, vocalist Al Howe, for years prior. Formerly known as DUKE, the band was fittingly rechristened HOWE II once joining the Shrapnel roster, rounding out its lineup with bassist Vern Parsons and drummer Joe Nevolo before issuing stunning debut full-length, High Gear, just one year later in 1989.

Featuring 10 tracks of high-octane, metal-infused hard rock—imagine VAN HALEN on nitrous oxide—High Gear may have boasted scorching guitar work at its core, but there was no lack of emphasis on well-honed songwriting. Extraordinary musicianship was seamlessly maneuvered into a framework of memorable compositions packed with power and emotion—as heard in the exuberant title track, the mid-paced pulse of “Thinking of You,” or the bluesy bounce of “Social Fever,” to cite but a few.

Out-of-print for years and long overdue for another chance to be heard, Divebomb Records is thrilled to present this licensed reissue of High Gear. Freshly remastered by Jamie King Audio, the CD—limited to just 1,000 copies—will come housed alongside an all-new 16-page booklet featuring: lyrics, plus a HOWE II-centric interview with Greg Howe himself, conducted toward the end of 2020. For the fans, by the fans!

DIRTY LOOKS

Bootlegs, CD

Street Date: June 10, 2022

Artist Hometown: Erie, PA

Key Markets: Worldwide Metal Community

For Fans of: RHINO BUCKET, AC/DC, KIX, ROSE TATTOO

After releasing a pair of excellent, Billboard-charting hard rock albums for major label Atlantic Records—Cool From the Wire (1988) and Turn of the Screw (1989)—DIRTY LOOKS licensed the nine-song Bootlegs release to Shrapnel Records in 1991. Consisting of material written throughout the band's peak stage, some of these compositions were purported to have been inexplicably rejected by Atlantic during the band's stint with the label, despite obvious strengths abound. Tracked at Acme Recording Studios outside of New York City and Dodge City Sound in Los Angeles, the tunes were laid down in large part by that era's core lineup of Henrik Ostergaard (vocals/guitar), Paul Lidel (guitar), Jack Pyers (bass), and Gene Barnett (drums). Cary Devore—who would later join Ostergaard in Rumbledog—also performed drums on a handful of recordings. Bootlegs presents a diverse range of the high-quality hard rock for which DIRTY LOOKS was known; from the straightforward thrusts of "Speed Queen" and "Fool for You," to the darker atmosphere of "Dude, Where's the Money," the bluesy edge of "Loveless" and "Only Tomorrow," and lone power ballad "The Last Forever."

Divebomb Records is now excited to put forth this officially licensed reissue of Bootlegs—back on CD for the first time in a whopping 30 years! Fully remastered by Jamie King Audio, this reissue—limited to just 1,000 copies—will also include an augmented layout with retouched photography. For the fans, by the fans!

Key Markets:

Rhode Island, Boston, Japan, New York, California

For Fans of:

SPY, REGIONAL JUSTICE CENTER, GULCH, CANDY, KNOCKED LOOSE, THE RIVAL MOB, MINDFORCE, CRO-MAGS, WARZONE, YOUTH OF TODAY

PEACE TEST are a hardcore outfit through and through but aren't afraid to mix knuckle-dragging powerviolence mid-paced hardcore parts with plenty of blastbeats. Hailing from Rhode Island they really throw the concept that a hardcore album needs to have a mold. Fourteen songs in fourteen minutes gives you just enough of a taste that you'll find yourself crowd killing your floor lamp and all-of a-sudden the side is over and you're wanting more. A perfect album for fans of 80's era Revelation Records fiend to a flip cap INFEST lover.
