FOR FANS OF: MERZBOW, THE RITA, PRURIENT, BASTARD NOISE, PHARMAKON, WHITE MICE

At the intersection of the two extreme genres of noise and grindcore, SISSY SPACEK has been an ongoing artistic process to create anxiety inducing chaotic music. The band has gone back to its basics with a lineup of it's core member John Wiese and longtime collaborator Charlie Mumma (who you may know from BLOODY PHOENIX or his contributions to KNELT ROTE). Diaphanous is a mess of blast beats, noise walls, and ardent screaming. The music is both artistic and unstructured – is it high culture or lowbrow? If you enjoyed the group's 2016 album Disfathom, you can consider this its spiritual successor. For fans of raucous noise with blastbeats. This is technically the band's second grindcore full length after being a band for almost a quarter of a century and it is not to be missed.

MARKETING POINTS:

- Artsy cover with both black printing and pantone silver
- Printed inner sleeve
- Band since 2001
- Popular in the noise community
- Only the band's second grindcore full length
